Referenced letter enclosed a memorandum concerning G.
LINCOLN ROCKWELL, a Naval Reservist, editor of "The Virginian," a pro-segregation magazine, and also stated that ROCKWELL was an acquaintance of one HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH, JR., 3707 Greenway, Baltimore, Md. Referenced letter reflected that HAROLD N.
ARROWSMITH, JR. was the subject of a closed Espionage - G case
(1944) and was described as having a mental condition. Espionage investigation of ARROWSMITH was reported under caption "CARL YNGVE GRUNDELL; HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH, JR., ESPIONAGE - G," Bufile
40-49275, BAfile 65-1547.

On 6/2/58, ELMER A. ZIEGLER, salesman for the J. W. MD.
BOARMAN COMPANY (Printing Supplies), 105 W. Pratt Street, Baltimore,
Maryland, telephonically furnished the following information:

An individual, who identified himself as H. A. SMITH, MD.
contacted ZIEGLER regarding the purchase of a small printing press.

SMITH stated that he and an unidentified group wanted to publish documents that had been suppressed in this country. ZIEGLER obtained the impression that the group SMITH was connected with was from Washington, D. C. ZIEGLER gathered from SMITH's conversation that the latter was anti-Semitic.

On 7/8/58, ZIEGLER contacted the Baltimore Office and advised that H. A. SMITH subsequently identified himself to ZIEGLER as HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH, JR., 3707 Greenway, Baltimore, Maryland. At this time, ZIEGLER stated that ARROWSMITH was still negotiating for the purchase of a printing press from ZIEGLER but had not yet made the purchase.

On 7/23/58, ZIEGLER again contacted the Baltimore Office and furnished the following information concerning a contact with ARROWSMITH on this same date.

ARROWSMITH purchased a printing press from ZIEGLER for $5,600.00. This press has not, as yet, been delivered and ARROWSMITH will get instructions from the seller as to how to operate it. One BILL EVANS, Post Office Box 368, Edgewater, Md., is also connected with ARROWSMITH in this endeavor. ARROWSMITH displayed to ZIEGLER several additional articles which he desired printed, which, according to ZIEGLER, were also anti-Semitic. One such article contained the name MAHRA, INC., Post Office Box 2223, Palm Beach, Florida. This name appeared to be the circulator of the document. ARROWSMITH remarked to ZIEGLER that he and EVANS were connected with some type of an organization which circulated this type of literature. He did not further identify the organization, but indicated that it was national in scope.

While talking to ZIEGLER about operating the press, ARROWSMITH remarked that a man was coming to Baltimore from Chicago and that this individual knew how to operate such a press. For this reason, ZIEGLER believed that the organization, with which ARROWSMITH mentioned his affiliation, is national in scope. ARROWSMITH also remarked that this organization circularizes posters with such slogans as "COMMUNISM IS JEWISM" and "FREE PALESTINE FROM THE JEWS."

ARROWSMITH informed ZIEGLER that this organization planned to picket the Israeli Embassy in Washington, D. C. on Sunday, 7/27/58. ARROWSMITH further stated that he had been to New York this past week end and had collected over $15,000.00 in financial support of this organization.

No further identifying information was obtained concerning BILL EVANS, mentioned above, other than that he was reported to be a graduate of the Naval Academy and resides at Post Office Box 368, Edgewater, Maryland. BA indices do not include any information identifiable with EVANS or Mahra, Inc.

The above is being submitted for the information of the Bureau and Washington Field and any action deemed necessary. No further action is being taken by the Baltimore Office inasmuch as ARROWSMITH was reported to have had a mental condition and the information reportedly furnished to ZIEGLER by him has not been corroborated, and in the absence of any allegation of a violation within Bureau's jurisdiction.

SUBJECT: ARAB PARTICIPATION AND INFLUENCE IN DISTRIBUTION OF HATE LITERATURE IN
THE UNITED STATES IS - MIDDLE EAST

A series of five articles appeared in the "New York Daily News" from 1/20-24/59 written by David Burk entitled "Peddling Hate in America: Egypt's Nasser." In these articles Burk accuses the Arabs (particularly President Nasser of the United Arab Republic) for fomenting much of anti-Jewish acts perpetrated by hate groups in United States by alleging anti-Jewish literature prepared by the Arabs has been given to Americans active in racist and hate campaigns for distribution. The articles further point out that some of these racists have been in contact with Arab officials and establishments in this country and some of their publications have contained pro-Nasser propaganda, the implication being that such propaganda was furnished by the Arabs. One Photostat each of these articles is enclosed for the use of each recipient office.

These articles specifically name certain persons as being leaders of a hate corps acting in behalf of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic in spreading anti-Jewish literature in this country through their publications or their activities. The names of these individuals together with the identities of the offices of origin of investigation concerning them or their publications are:

- (1) James H. Madole: head of the National Renaissance Party, New York City.

New York is office of origin of current investigation entitled "National Renaissance Party, IS - X," New York file 105-6112 and also case entitled "James H. Madole, Registration Act - United Arab Republic," New York file 105-6129.

(11) George Lincoln Rockwell
6512 Williamsburg Boulevard
Arlington, Virginia

Bufiles reflect Rockwell was suspect in connection with the bombing of the Jewish Temple at Atlanta, Georgia, on 10/12/58. WFO's attention referred to WFO file 100-34886 entitled "George Lincoln Rockwell, Information Concerning," Richmond's file number not known.

In order to ascertain the extent of Arab participation and influence in the distribution of hate literature in the United States, a file has been opened bearing instant caption. Each office is instructed to make a complete and thorough review of its files concerning the above individuals and publications published by those persons located in their respective divisions in order to locate all information which may indicate Arab influence, associations or connection in any way with above persons or their publications. You should be particularly alert for any information indicating that articles prepared by the Arabs or constituting Arab propaganda are published in any of the publications.

In addition to a thorough file review, you should also contact established sources and informants for any information they may have in this regard. All leads developed therefrom should be afforded thorough and intensive investigation. The results of your efforts in connection with above should be set forth in detail, properly documented as to source, in report form under instant caption and submitted within 30 days from receipt of this letter.

Object of this file is to compile a complete picture of this particular situation and to effect a definite separation of this investigation, for report purposes, from any past or present investigations of these individuals, their organizations and their publications. This will eliminate reporting of extraneous data in connection with this case. The New York Office is designated as office of origin.

Letter to SAC, New York
Re: Arab Participation and Influence in Distribution of Hate Literature in the United States

Reports in this case should be designed to provide a well-documented picture of the background of the individual involved, the nature and extent of his participation in distribution of hate literature, the allegations in the news articles indicating his connections or associations with the Arabs, any prior data available in files on this point, and results of investigation to determine extent of participation and influence in or control of his activities by Arabs. Reports should be planned and coordinated so that Newark Office report, for example, will be restricted to data regarding Conde McGinley. In some offices several individuals will be involved and report should be broken down according to individuals. All offices should bear in mind in connection with interviews conducted as to whether persons being interviewed can furnish information regarding individuals in other offices and promptly furnish such data to appropriate field offices for inclusion in reports prepared by them.

In the event recipient offices are aware of other individuals or publications which allegedly are being used by or cooperating with Arabs in distributing hate literature, such information should also be set forth in these reports.

In any instance where data is developed or available indicating possibility of Registration Act violation separate cases should be opened promptly aimed at obtaining evidence and the investigation should be given continuous and preferred attention. Bureau should be advised immediately when case is opened. Concise summary of data developed in such individual case, carefully documented as to source, should also be reported in this control file.

With regard to the individuals mentioned as racists in the "New York Daily News" articles as set forth above, the recipient offices may confine their file reviews to those persons and publications located in their respective divisions

SUBJECT: HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH, JR.
INFORMATION CONCERNING

Pursuant to a request of Admiral Lewis Strauss made to Inspector Holloman today (6-17), Bufiles have been reviewed concerning captioned individual. In view of the voluminous references to him, this review has been limited to the two main files reflecting investigation of him.

In 1941 and 1942, Arrowsmith was the subject of a Selective Service - Conscientious Objector investigation which indicated that his conscientious objection was based on the Commandment "Thou shalt not kill" and not on any religious grounds. At that time, Arrowsmith resided at 3707 Greenway, Baltimore, Maryland. It was also developed that he had a very poor scholastic record both at Johns Hopkins University and Harvard University as well as Phillips Academy. Dr. Lauren A. Smith, Director, The Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, stated subject definitely a psychiatric problem and that subject's actions to him are very puzzling. He stated Arrowsmith not mentally ill but suffers from grave peculiarities. One of these is the fact that Arrowsmith will constantly conflict with any authority. He also possesses a definite psychiatric complex about killing, and would not eat meat. Smith expressed the opinion in 1942 that the Government should be thankful subject not in armed services and should take every precaution to preclude the possibility of his entering Government service because he believed this individual would blow up "mentally" from 24 hours to 24 days after his induction. Professors and doctors at Phillips Academy considered him a psychopathic case. He was also reported by Dean and doctors at Harvard University as a psychopathic case. One reference considered him a very unsteady type of person not capable of correlating his thoughts. He was also thought to have had pro-German views. (25-59542)

Arrowsmith was also the subject of an Espionage - G investigation which was closed in 1945. This investigation was based on information that Arrowsmith had been in contact with Carl Yngve Grundell who was reportedly working for the Germans. During this investigation, information was also received reflecting on Arrowsmith's mental condition and the fact that he was psychopathic and investigation was concluded without interviewing him in view of his mental condition. No information was obtained directly implicating Arrowsmith as an agent or collaborator of the German Intelligence Service. (40-49275-240)

Arrowsmith in 1958 was reportedly an acquaintance of G. Lincoln Rockwell, Editor of "The Virginian," a pro-segregation magazine. In June, 1958, Elmer A. Ziegler, salesman for a printing supply firm in Baltimore, advised he had been contacted by Arrowsmith concerning the purchase of a small printing press for the purpose of publishing documents that had been suppressed in this country. In July, 1958, Ziegler advised that Arrowsmith had purchased a printing press and had displayed to Ziegler articles which he desired printed which, according to Ziegler, were anti-Semitic. Arrowsmith remarked to Ziegler that he and one Bill Evans were connected with some type of an organization which circulated this type of literature indicating it was national in scope. Arrowsmith further advised Ziegler that his organization circularizes posters with such slogans as "Communism is Judaism" and "Free Palestine from the Jews." Arrowsmith informed Ziegler that his organization planned to picket the Israeli Embassy in Washington on July 27, 1958. (40-49275-243) *

In 1951 the Bureau conducted a Security Matter - C investigation of Harold Noel Arrowsmith, subject's father, who at that time was Canon in charge at the Protestant Cathedral, Baltimore, Maryland. No evidence of communist activity was developed but it was ascertained that Arrowsmith, Sr., was a sponsor of the Baltimore Council of American-Soviet Friendship, an affiliate of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, which has been cited by the Attorney General, and was on the Advisory Board of the Baltimore Committee for Russian War Relief, Inc. (100-376523)

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Liaison Section orally brief Admiral Strauss concerning the background of Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr.

* Recent press articles indicate that Arrowsmith and Rockwell have since had a falling out, and Arrowsmith has brought suit against Rockwell to recover the printing equipment and the house in which Rockwell resides and which is actually owned by Arrowsmith.

On 6-17-59 Liaison briefed Admiral Strauss concerning the above individual pursuant to the recommendation in my memorandum of 6-17-59. At that time, Admiral Strauss asked certain questions and Bufiles have been reviewed to obtain the answers to his questions, which answers are set forth below.

(1) Question: Strauss indicated an interest in Arrowsmith's age.

Answer: Arrowsmith was born June 17, 1919, at Baltimore, Maryland. (40-49275-39)

(2) Question: Was Strauss ever a trustee of the Institute of Pacific Relations as alleged by Arrowsmith who supposedly obtained his information from "Who's Who in American Jewry," 1938-39, page 1058.

Answer: Bureau Library is in possession of a copy of the above publication and it does specifically state Strauss was a trustee of the Institute of Pacific Relations. In addition, during the Bureau investigation of the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR), interviews were conducted in April, 1950, with IPR officials, and current and past membership records, biennial reports and various issues of IPR publications were reviewed. From these sources, information was received that Lewis Strauss, described as a banker, was shown as a member of the Board of Trustees of the American Institute of Pacific Relations, Inc., 1933-34. IPR records also indicate Lewis Strauss was a member of the American Council Institute of Pacific Relations in the Spring of 1938 and the name Lewis L. Strauss, with address 52 William Street, New York City, appeared as a member of the American Council in 1937. (100-64700-349 p. 29, 1004 p. 289, and 271 p. 1775)

In November, 1951, the McCarran Committee furnished the Bureau original documents of the IPR and included was a list dated 1-20-38 headed "American Council Institute of Pacific Relations" which list supposedly designated "members." The name of Lewis L. Strauss, 52 William Street, New York City, appeared on this list. (100-64700-1004 p. 22)

Answer: In order to answer this question, it would be necessary to conduct a detailed analysis of the IPR file, which consists of a great many sections. This was not possible due to the expeditious nature of Admiral Strauss' request. It is believed, however, that the following may be of assistance to Admiral Strauss.

The Report of the Committee on the Judiciary of the 82nd Congress (Report Number 2050) concerning the Institute of Pacific Relations sets forth, among others, the following conclusions: "A small core of officials and staff members carried the main burden of IPR activities and directed its administration and policies"..."There is no evidence that the large majority of its members support the IPR for any reason except to advance the professed research and scholarly purposes of the organization"..."Most members of the IPR and most members of its Board of Trustees were inactive and obviously without any influence over the policies of the organization and the conduct of its affairs"..."The effective leadership of the IPR often sought to deceive IPR contributors and supporters as to the true character and activities of the organization"..."The names of eminent individuals were by design used as a respectable and impressive screen for the activities of the IPR inner core and as a defense when such activities came under scrutiny." (100-64700-1094)

(4) Question: Was Arrowsmith ever involved in any way or referred to in connection with synagogue bombings in the South.

Answer: Due to the numerous references concerning Arrowsmith which would not apply to answering this question by Admiral Strauss and in view of the time element, Arrowsmith's name was checked against the main files concerning the various bombings cases. The only reference to him in such cases was that involving the bombing of the Jewish Temple, 1589 Peachtree Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia, 10-12-58. (62-105023)

Arrowsmith was interviewed in connection with this case on 10-16-58. He stated he is anti-Jewish and does research work in an effort to show the "Jewish influence" on American life. He advised he was acquainted with G. Lincoln Rockwell, having met him in April, 1958, and thereafter purchased printing equipment and a house for Rockwell's use in Arlington, Virginia. Arrowsmith at that time was suing Rockwell for the return of his equipment and possession of the house. Arrowsmith admitted furnishing money to Rockwell which was used for anti-Jewish demonstrations in Washington, D.C.; Atlanta, Georgia; and Louisville, Kentucky, during the weekend of July 26-27, 1958. Arrowsmith stated he subsequently met Wallace Allen in Washington, D.C., through Rockwell and had furnished $500 toward the defense of Allen and others arrested with him in Atlanta, Georgia, as a result of the afore-mentioned demonstration. Arrowsmith stated he is opposed to violence or any other illegal acts as a means of furthering his cause and he denied any knowledge of or participation in the bombing of the Temple in Atlanta. (62-105023-573)

Considerable newspaper publicity was given to Arrowsmith in connection with the Atlanta bombing in which case one of the individuals arrested by Atlanta Police was Wallace H. Allen. The "New York Post" of 10-19-58 stated that the FBI had questioned a wealthy Baltimore man identified as Arrowsmith who was said to have conceded he had financed some anti-Jewish demonstrations but denied prior knowledge of the bombings. This paper quoted Arrowsmith as stating "I am anti-Zionist and anticommunist Jews and any other form of treason. I'm pro-American Republic. We derive our ideas from Adolf Hitler. We admire him for his genius, his ideas. We are not German Nazis and we do not believe we should exterminate Jews." (62-105023-A)

The "Washington Post and Times Herald" 10-18-58 stated that Arrowsmith had said he had helped finance anti-Jewish demonstrations in Atlanta, Washington and Louisville in July prepared by Rockwell. (62-105023-A)

The "Washington Star" 10-17-58 stated that Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents had questioned George Lincoln Rockwell of Arlington, Virginia, concerning a letter he admitted writing to a suspect under arrest in connection with the Atlanta synagogue bombing (Wallace H. Allen). The Rockwell letter to Allen mentioned a "Fat Cat" who was supposed to be helping finance the publication of anti-Jewish material. Rockwell identified the "Fat Cat" as Arrowsmith who reportedly had volunteered to the FBI that he had no connection with the bombing.

The "Washington Star" final edition of 10-17-58 contained similar information concerning Arrowsmith being identified as the "Fat Cat" and quotes Arrowsmith as stating that on the basis of "the history of communism" he feels Jews are behind the communist movement. This article indicated there was a suit filed in Arlington Circuit Court on 9-23-58 by Arrowsmith seeking the recovery of printing equipment valued at approximately $18,000 which the suit claims Rockwell unjustly detained from Arrowsmith. ✓

The "Washington Post and Times Herald" of 10-17-58 states Arrowsmith had advised the "Washington Post" that he had given $500 to Wallace H. Allen for bail money and legal fees after Allen was arrested in Atlanta in July, 1958, for participating in an anti-Jewish picketing demonstration. Considerable additional information concerning the association of Arrowsmith and Rockwell is set forth in this issue of the above paper and includes a quotation by Arrowsmith concerning the Atlanta bombing in which he stated "I can't imagine anything so stupid." Additional information concerning the association of Arrowsmith and Rockwell appears in the "Washington Star" 10-17-58.

(Due to the expeditious nature of this request, all references concerning Arrowsmith in the Atlanta bombing case were not reviewed but it is believed the above information will be sufficient for Admiral Strauss' purpose, particularly the newspaper comments referred to.)

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memorandum be referred to the Liaison Section to orally brief Admiral Strauss.

As recommended in enclosed memorandum Scatterday to Belmont June 17, 1959, Liaison representative orally briefed Commerce Secretary Lewis L. Strauss regarding results of our closed 1941-1942 Selective Service and 1945 Espionage - G investigations of Arrowsmith, both of which indicated information reflecting adversely on his mental condition, but did not reveal him to be directly implicated as agent or collaborator of German Intelligence Service. Strauss was also briefed on 1958 information we received concerning Arrowsmith's reported connection with anti-Semitic activities. Mention was also made of our 1951 investigation of Arrowsmith's father which showed father's connection with National Committee of American-Soviet Friendship and with Russian War Relief. Mr. Robert Dodds, Commerce General Counsel, was present during briefing.

Strauss expressed appreciation for rapid handling of his request and said his interest in Arrowsmith had been aroused by the fact that on the previous afternoon a man identifying himself as Arrowsmith had visited office of Senator Keating of New York and left there certain documentary material (copies enclosed). This material consists first of a biographical outline of Strauss' life and alleged organizational affiliations purporting to have been derived from certain reference works including "Who's Who in America" and "Who's Who in American Jewry." According to Strauss and Dodds, checking of the outline against reference works so far has indicated some distortions, e.g. Strauss is portrayed as a Zionist, whereas he says he has always been anti-Zionist. The second document purports to show that the Bolshevik revolution in Russia was financed to a considerable extent by Kuhn, Loeb and Company with which, it states, Strauss was associated 1919-1947. Strauss said the implication that Kuhn, Loeb helped finance Russian revolution is false. The third document purports to be a typed copy of a letter Strauss wrote from Paris in 1919 to Justice Louis D. Brandeis. This letter shows the deep concern of Strauss in keeping advised of the reported persecution of Jews in Poland and in endeavoring to help them. At the time, Strauss was secretary to Herbert Hoover, U. S. Food Administrator. Strauss said he has no present recollection of letter, and signature (appearing on a Photostat he has) does not look like his present one, although he was emotionally concerned about report of persecutions of Jews at the time the letter indicates.

RE: HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH, JR.
INFORMATION CONCERNING

Strauss said he did not know if the above material was distributed to any other people through whom it may possibly be injected into the current Senate consideration of his appointment. Dodds interjected that he understood the material had been offered to Mr. Cox, Counsel of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, who reportedly said it had not been offered soon enough and was too inflammatory. Strauss said he almost hoped his opponents would try to use the material.

Strauss said he would appreciate greatly further expedite checking of our files to see what we can give him on the following questions:

1. Was Arrowsmith involved or in any way referred to in connection with any of the synagogue bombings in the South which occurred in the past several years?
2. Do our files reflect Strauss ever listed as a trustee, Institute of Pacific Relations? (Enclosed biographical outline so lists him, giving as source "Who's Who in American Jewry," 1938-1939, page 1058).
3. When did Institute of Pacific Relations "go bad"?

Strauss said the matter is of extreme importance to him and he hoped to be given the answers by the Liaison representative on June 18, 1959. Strauss called the Liaison representative at 10:15 a.m. on June 18, 1959, stating that he felt that this material of Arrowsmith's probably will be used, if at all, that day on the floor of the Senate and, therefore, it was most important for Strauss to get answers to his questions as early as possible. Strauss was told that we were fully cognizant of the urgency of this and were making every possible effort to get the answers for him. Strauss said that if the Liaison representative could not reach him quickly, the information could be furnished to the Commerce General Counsel Dodds.

Name Check Section is checking files on questions posed by Strauss.

ACTION:

For information. Unless advised to contrary, no written confirmation is being made of material on which Strauss was orally briefed on June 17, 1959. If approved, Strauss will be briefed on results of further checking of our files on questions posed by him.

On basis of approval of my memorandum of 6-18-59, and memorandum Scatterday to Belmont, same date, the Liaison Representative orally briefed Commerce Secretary Lewis L. Strauss on late afternoon of 6-18-59 in answer to questions Strauss posed on 6-17-59 regarding his (Strauss's) connection with Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR), the character of IPR, and further background of Arrowsmith, particularly his involvement in anti-Jewish activities and propaganda. Strauss said he wanted the Director, Mr. Tolson, the Liaison Representative and all Bureau personnel concerned to know that he deeply appreciated the efficient assistance given him in the Arrowsmith matter and other matters which came up during the trying period of Senate controversy over his appointment as Commerce Secretary. He remarked that it was then quite obvious that the anti-Semitic material of Arrowsmith would not come up in the Senate as the Senate was then moving very rapidly toward a vote (Strauss appointment was defeated later that night). Strauss said he probably never would have occasion to use the material we had brought to his attention on Arrowsmith, but if occasion did arise, he certainly would not use anything but public source material without first checking with us.

Regarding proceedings then going on in Senate, Strauss seemed quite bitter and generally pessimistic, although from time to time he expressed some faint optimism about the outcome. He said Senator Lyndon Johnson had maneuvered the Senate toward a vote more quickly than had been expected; that Senator Dirksen thought he had an understanding with Johnson that a vote would not take place until 6/19 or 20/59; and that it was expected Senator Morse would prolong consideration by an extended speech against Strauss. In reliance on these circumstances three Republican Senators had flown west on 6-18-59. Almost immediately thereafter Morse announced he was not going to speak and Johnson made his move to bring the matter to a vote that night. Strauss said strenuous efforts were then made to recall the absent Republicans and other Republicans began making speeches to delay a vote until absentees returned. Strauss said that he felt the conduct in the Senate was a very poor example, especially for the youth of the country, and he felt sure that if such tactics were used in a high school it would be considered "dirty football." Strauss said one comforting factor was the support he had received from so many different quarters, including some Senators on the Democratic side, mentioning specifically Senator Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut (whom he referred to as a former Bureau Agent) and he also said he received assurances of support from many Catholic friends, mentioning specifically Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, President of Notre Dame University.

On the morning of 6-19-59 the Liaison Representative was in touch with Mrs. Virginia Walker, Strauss's personal secretary, who said she does not know at this time what Strauss's immediate plans are or who will be in charge at Commerce pending appointment of a new secretary. She intimated Strauss might possibly again go over to the White House, where he formerly was a Special Assistant to the President. Mrs. Walker said she would endeavor to keep the Liaison Representative advised of further developments.

Arrowsmith's name has been in the paper recently in connection with his ownership of the house in Arlington, Virginia, occupied by Lincoln Rockwell, the "rabble rouser with a Nazi touch." On 8-20-59 I learned from Mr. Walter Jessop, State, that Arrowsmith went into the State Department on 8-18-59 and advised that he was instituting a suit involving a large amount of money against Ogden Reid, (now U. S. Ambassador to Israel) former editor of the "New York Herald Tribune." Arrowsmith indicated his suit was based on a derogatory statement published in the "Herald Tribune" concerning him. He is also suing the newspaper.

Re Baltimore airtel, 11/13/58, and Baltimore letter, 11/13/58, captioned "WALLACE HUGH ALLEN; ET AL, BOMBING OF THE TEMPLE, 1589 PEACHTREE ROAD, N. W., ATLANTA, GEORGIA, 10/12/58."

Re airtel reflected information received from Mrs. ARROWSMITH concerning some connections that her son might have had with the bombing of the temple described above, and re Baltimore letter indicated that subject apparently an individual of questionable mental stability, might attempt to obtain an interview with the Director.

HAROLD ARROWSMITH contacted the Baltimore Office, this date, telephonically, saying that he was calling from Washington, D. C., where he is living at 300 New Jersey Avenue, S. E. In the conversation, ARROWSMITH said that he is planning legal action against certain unnamed newspapers and newspaper services for the exaggerated statements made about him concerning the bombing of the temple. ARROWSMITH went on to say that he had attempted to obtain the services of Attorney E. BENNET WILLIAMS of Washington, D. C., but this Attorney has, at this time, refused to have anything to do with him. ARROWSMITH said he thought that if he could obtain a formal or informal statement from the FBI indicating he was innocent of any connection with the bombing described above, this Attorney might then take his case against the newspapers.

ARROWSMITH was firmly advised that this Bureau would issue no such statement, formal, informal, or otherwise.

He then asked if this Bureau would think it better if he would "let sleeping dogs lie." ARROWSMITH was advised that this Bureau could give no such opinion, nor recommend any sort of action in this respect.

ARROWSMITH went on to say that he does not need the money, but thought that the legal action would be a "sort of psychological warfare" against the newspapers.

It was impressed upon ARROWSMITH during the entire conversation that the Bureau would issue no statement in his behalf and further has no opinion concerning what action he should or should not take against the unnamed newspapers.

The above is for the information of the Bureau only, and a copy is furnished Washington Field, since ARROWSMITH is residing in Washington, D. C. at this time.

HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 9, 1959, that Harold Noel Arrowsmith of Baltimore, Maryland, has stated that he is obtaining the names and addresses of students at Harvard University. Arrowsmith is to receive this list by November 15, 1959, and he intends to send the students some literature which he has prepared.

The source has advised that Arrowsmith is a known anti-Semite and that he has authored, as well as, financed anti-Jewish material in the past. Though Arrowsmith did not indicate the exact literature he intends to mail to the Harvard students, he did indicate that it would be "insulting" to the Jews.

This memorandum contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Julius Frandsen of United Press International (UPI), who is very friendly to the Bureau, telephoned and advised Wick that two papers which carried stories about 1 1/2 years ago concerning Rockwell are being threatened with suit by him. Rockwell is the son of a former Baltimore Canon of an Episcopal church. Arrowsmith supplied some of the money for Rockwell's activities in Arlington and, in fact, owned the house from which Rockwell operated until recently when Arrowsmith had him evicted.

Frandsen said that in one of the stories about the time of the bombings in Atlanta and down South generally, UPI carried a statement something to the effect that it was the bankroll of Arrowsmith which financed the bombing terrorists. Frandsen said UPI should never have done this but it is a fact and now they are faced with a possible suit. He asked if we could give him any guidance on the background of Arrowsmith.

ACTION:

After checking files, I had Wick send over to Frandsen public source data on Arrowsmith and also filled him in on the man's background. We investigated him in 1941 and 1942 as a conscientious objector. He was born in Baltimore 6-17-19 and has been expelled from various schools in his youth for poor scholarship. He attained poor records at Johns Hopkins and Harvard University. He is regarded as a psychopathic case and apparently derived some of his money from his family's ownership of a block of stock in Dunn and Bradstreet Company. He is avowedly anti-Semitic. He was in Germany for seven of the past nine years. We have no arrest record for him in the Identification Division.

Mr. Frandsen was most appreciative of our assistance and said he would keep it in confidence. He said UPI attorneys are very carefully looking into Arrowsmith who is probably only threatening suit as a sort of psychological warfare against the newspapers involved.

HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH, JR.

The "New York Journal American" for 10-13-58 quoted Arrowsmith as stating he owned the house in Arlington, Virginia, where George L. Rockwell lived. Arrowsmith said he spent money hating the Jews because the history of communism shows that Jews are behind the red movement.

The "New York World Telegram and Sun" of 10-22-58 relates that Arrowsmith and Rockwell first met at Newport News, Virginia, early in 1958 and neither of the men could pinpoint the reasons for their attacks on "communist Zionists." Arrowsmith said he attended many schools, Harvard, John Hopkins and Ohio State Universities and several institutions in Europe. He was reported as stating that he studied race biology and that subject was probably his principal interest. He said his research had left him no time for marriage.

The "New York Post" of 10-19-58 discussed the letter Rockwell wrote to Wallace Allan, one of the bombing suspects in Georgia, in which letter Rockwell referred to the "fat cat" and the "big blast" being set for the next week. It was reported that the term "fat cat" had reference to Arrowsmith as a financial angel back of the distribution of anti-Semitic propaganda in the South and the "big blast" allegedly referred to a concentrated distribution of a large volume of anti-Semitic literature.

In the "New York Post" of 10-19-58 Arrowsmith was described by his mother as devoting his full time to studies and research of Nordic and Mediterranean racial characteristics to prove his belief that Nordic stock is superior. This newspaper also mentioned that Arrowsmith had contributed $300 to the unsuccessful Senate campaign of Rear Admiral John G. Crommelin who was described as a "open anti-Semite."

The "Washington Post and Times Herald" of 10-18-58 in describing Arrowsmith's anti-Jewish activities reported that he helped support "The Virginian," an anti-Jewish magazine and paid for subscriptions of the publication which were sent to embassies in the U.S. and overseas and to metropolitan newspapers. It also reported that he paid for the distribution of the "American Mercury" and related that "the 'Mercury' is for freshmen in this field and 'The Virginian' is for post graduates." Arrowsmith was quoted as stating his anti-Jewish sentiment developed over the years but first started when he changed preparatory schools. "I transferred from one social selective school to one where they had Jew boys and Negroes," he said. "That was too much. It was a shock." He said the transfer was for academic reasons and at that time he was preparing for a diplomatic career.

The article continued in describing Arrowsmith as living on income from investments. He also stated he believed racial segregation a necessary evil as he was sensitive by nature and didn't like to see Negroes humiliated.

The "Washington Post and Times Herald" of 10-17-58 reported that Arrowsmith was questioned by the FBI in Alexandria on the previous evening (October 16). The paper reported that Arrowsmith lived with his mother in Baltimore's exclusive Guilford section. His mother stated that fortunately he does not have to earn his own living.

HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH, JR.

Arrowsmith was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on June 17, 1919, the son of Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Sr., who was Canon in charge of the Protestant Cathedral (Episcopal) in Baltimore prior to his death.

In 1941 and 1942, young Arrowsmith was investigated as a Conscientious Objector - Selective Service. His conscientious objection was based on the Commandment "Thou Shalt Not Kill" and not on any other specific religious grounds. At that time he resided in Baltimore, Maryland. This investigation revealed that he had a very poor scholastic record at Philips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts, which he attended from September, 1937, to February, 1938, when he was expelled because of poor scholarship. He also attended Avon Old Farm School at Avon, Connecticut, from February, 1938, to February, 1939, where his academic record was also very poor. Arrowsmith was also a student at Johns Hopkins and Harvard Universities where he also recorded poor academic records.

Representatives of all of the above institutions reported that he was definitely a psychiatric problem and that he was very peculiar as a personality who was strictly a "loner." He did not cultivate friends or companions and while stated not to be mentally ill, he was believed to suffer from grave peculiarities. One peculiarity was the fact that he constantly conflicted with any authority and possessed a definite psychiatric complex about killing and would not eat meat. One doctor expressed the opinion that the Government should be thankful that Arrowsmith was not in the armed services because he believed Arrowsmith would "blow up mentally" from 24 hours to 24 days after his induction. Various other instructors and acquaintances described him as a psychopathic case who was not capable of correlating his thoughts.

Arrowsmith was investigated for an allegation of German sympathy and espionage activity in behalf of that country during World War II. He had been in contact with one Carl Y. Grundell who was reportedly working for the Germans. No substantial information indicating that he was directly implicated as an Agent of the Nazis was disclosed by this investigation, and he was not interviewed because of his unstable mental condition.

In connection with the bombing of the Jewish Temple in Atlanta, Georgia, in October, 1958, allegations were made that the bombers were members of "hate" groups. These "hate" groups were described as being anti-Semitic as well as opposing integration of the races and George Lincoln Rockwell, self-styled Nazi of Arlington, Virginia, was named as being in sympathy with the bombers. In determining the accuracy of these allegations investigation was conducted regarding Arrowsmith when it was learned that he was the owner of the house and printing press in Arlington, Virginia, where Rockwell lived and published "The Virginian." This was an extremely anti-Semitic paper.

Arrowsmith was interviewed by the Richmond Office of the FBI in October, 1958. He readily admitted that he was opposed to the Jewish race and had engaged in private research work dealing with the Jewish influences on American life. He also stated that he had financed the publication of material opposing the Jews and anti-Jewish demonstrations in cities in the South. He said that he was opposed to acts of violence or any illegal activities in the furtherance of his anti-Jewish beliefs and that he had no part in the Atlanta bombing. He related that some of his material had been published by the "American Mercury Magazine" in 1957 and 1958 although he did not identify the articles and did not indicate that he has any financial interests in the magazine. He stated that he and his family owned a large portion of the stock in the Dunn and Bradstreet Company.

It was determined that Arrowsmith had lived in Germany from April, 1950, until sometime in 1956 and that he was associated with the Anthropoligisches Institute in Mainz, Germany.

Inquiry at the State Department revealed that he was issued passport number 145460 on 10-3-49 and that this passport was renewed at the U. S. Embassy at Bremen, Germany, on 9-25-51. On 7-12-54, he was issued passport number 4744FS73846 at the U. S. Embassy at Frankfurt, Germany, and this passport was renewed at Frankfurt on 7-13-56, the renewal number being 321. On 7-22-58 Arrowsmith was issued passport number 1178478 on an application stating that he intended to visit Germany and France for a two-year period.

It was also revealed that Arrowsmith had visited the office of Richard Arens, Staff Director of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, in approximately November, 1957. Arens said Arrowsmith was accompanied by the editor of "The Virginian" whose name he could not recall (probably Rockwell) and that the individual with Arrowsmith was extremely anti-Semitic. Arrowsmith continued to contact Arens' office until he made a nuisance of himself and Arens finally declined to talk with him.

Arrowsmith also talked to Colonel William F. Heimlich, in the offices of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He spoke to Colonel Heimlich in German and said he knew several professors in Germany. He indicated to Heimlich that he was "studying factors leading up to World War I, including the activities of Leon Trotsky." His conversation included talking about all Jews being communists and that all the troubles of the world were started by Jews. Arrowsmith made a nuisance of himself with Colonel Heimlich who instructed his secretary that he did not want to see Arrowsmith any more.

On 8-28-59 Arrowsmith telephoned the Baltimore Office of the FBI stating that he was planning legal action against certain unnamed newspapers and newspaper services for exaggerated statements made about him concerning the bombing of the Jewish Temple in Atlanta. He said he had attempted to obtain the services of Attorney E. Bennet Williams of Washington to represent him, but Williams declined to have anything to do with him. He requested a statement from the FBI indicating his innocence in connection with the bombing which he could use to persuade a good attorney to take his case. The Baltimore Office refused such a statement and declined to make any comment to him whereupon Arrowsmith related that it might be best if he would "let sleeping dogs lie." He continued by stating that he did not need the money but thought the legal action would be a "sort of psychological warfare" against the newspapers.

Early in November, 1959, a reliable source advised that Arrowsmith was going to obtain the names and addresses of students at Harvard University and mail the students literature he had prepared. He did not indicate the type of literature he intended to mail but intimated that it would be "insulting" to the Jews.

In the late afternoon of February 29, 1960, captioned individual was taken on a tour of Bureau Headquarters by tour leader Walter Maxwell. At the conclusion of the tour Arrowsmith and an individual by the name of Emory Burke of Decatur, Georgia, requested to see an Agent and were referred to SA John M. Reed, Crime Research Section.

Arrowsmith's complaint seemed to pertain to his theory that Jews are primarily responsible for the formation and advance of the Communist Party as it exists today. He went into great detail about the pre-World War I History of the Bolshevik Movement and the activity and support that various political figures gave to this organization in the 1920s and 30s.

Interspersed with Arrowsmith's remarks were numerous name droppings, his inquiries at the House Committee on Un-American Activities, his education at Harvard and the fact that his father was a prominent Episcopalian Minister at Baltimore, Maryland.

Arrowsmith advised that he presently maintains a voluminous file on persons of Jewish extraction who are active in communist organizations, and were active in the Bolshevik Movement in the past. Arrowsmith appeared to be on a "Fishing expedition" for any investigation that the FBI is doing regarding any persons of Jewish nationality. He naturally was given no indications, one way or the other as to whether or not the Bureau was conducting or had ever conducted any such specialized investigation.

During the entire interview with Arrowsmith, Emory Burke had nothing to say and just seemed to be an associate of Arrowsmith. At the conclusion of the interview with Arrowsmith, he expressed complete admiration for the Bureau and also mentioned that he thought the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit," was an excellent work on the organizational structure of the Communist Party.

Bureau files contain numerous references to Arrowsmith. He was the subject of a conscientious objector investigation in 1941 and 1942. He has been expelled from various schools for poor marks. He has attended John Hopkins University. He is unemployed and derives his income from family inheritance as a result of the possession of a large stock in the Dun and Bradstreet Company. He has been described as very anti-semitic. He was investigated during World War II for reportedly working with German contacts, however, no information verifying this was developed.

Dear Mr. Reed:

I take pleasure in enclosing two copies of a mimeographed bulletin prepared by me in the late Spring of 1959 at the request of a Senator on certain financial aspects of the international communist conspiracy.

It was originally intended as background material for questioning in connection with the hearings of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee on the nomination of Lewis L. Strauss to be Secretary of Commerce.

As you will recall, the Senate on June 19, 1959, by a vote rejected Mr. Strauss' nomination.

ENCLOSURE

THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION IN RUSSIA WAS FINANCED TO A CONSIDERABLE EXTENT BY KUHN, LOEB & COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY, WITH WHICH LOUIS LICHTENSTEIN STRAUSS WAS ASSOCIATED FOR 27 YEARS (1919 TO 1947).

"Today it is estimated even by Jacob's [Jacob H. Schiff, the long-time head of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Company] grandson, John Schiff, a prominent member of New York Society, that the old man sank about $20,000,000 for the final triumph of Bolshevism in Russia. Other New York banking houses also contributed."

New York Journal-American, February 3, 1949, p. 16.

"...International finance was bitterly opposed to [Czarist] Russia."

Boris L. Brasol, The World At The Cross Roads, Boston, 1921, pp. 9-10. [Mr. Brasol was an official in the War Trade Board, Washington, during World War I].

"A note drawn up by the American official [intelligence] services and transmitted by the High Commissioner of the French Republic in the United States' contained the following passage: 'In February, 1916, it was learned for the first time that a revolution was being fomented in Russia. It was discovered that the under-mentioned persons and concerns engaged in this enterprise of destruction: 1. Jacob Schiff

2. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Directors: Jacob Schiff, Felix Warburg, Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, Jerome Hanauer [NOTE: Hanauer is Admiral Strauss's father-in-law].
3. Guggenheim
4. Max Breitung."

From Enclosure No. 1 with Despatch No. 26, Political, of the American Consulate (Elbridge D. Rand, American Consul), Geneva, Switzerland, January 21, 1929. National Archives, Department of State, Decimal File, 1910-1929, No. 861.4016/325.

"I do not think the Bolshevik movement in Russia would have been a success if it had not been for the support it got from certain elements in New York..."

Rev. George A. Simons, Superintendent of the American Methodist Episcopal Church in Petrograd (now Leningrad), Russia, from the fall of 1907 until October 1918, in testimony before a sub-committee of the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate, February 1919, in: Bolshevik Propaganda, Hearings, 65th Congress, 3rd Session and thereafter, Washington (G.P.O.), 1919, p. 113. The American Ambassador to Russia, David R. Francis, in the above Hearings, was asked by Senator Nelson (page 977) whether Dr. Simons was a reliable and trustworthy man. Ambassador Francis replied: "Oh, I think so; absolutely. I think he is entirely so."

In 1918 he officially represented British diplomatic interests in Russia, for which service he was later created a Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George].

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was supported by huge sums of money by American financiers. The bankers Jacob Schiff, A. S. Ochs, B. Schlesinger, and Kuhn, Loeb & Company, were in close touch with Lenin.

Richard Hannuschka, Hinter der Maske der Freimaurerei, Berlin, 1935, p. 13.

"...New York...[bankers] during the First World War financed Trotsky..."

G. K. Chesterton, in Truth, London, July 30, 1948.

"The success of the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution was made possible by the financial support and influence of International Financiers."

Dr. A. Homer, in The Catholic Herald, London, October 21, 1933.

Erich Ludendorff, Kriegshetze und Völkermorden in den letzten 150 Jahren, Munich, 1936, p. 149. [General Ludendorff was Commander-in-Chief of the German Army in World War I].

"After the Kerensky revolution [in March 1917] he [Trotsky] tried to sail for Russia from Halifax [Nova Scotia, Canada, in April 1917] with a sum of money in his pocket."

Sir Arthur Willert, The Road To Safety, London, 1952, p. 29. [During World War I Sir Arthur Willert was in turn the Washington correspondent of The Times, London; Secretary of the British War Mission in Washington; and the representative of the British Ministry of Information in Washington].

"Trotsky was introduced and recommended to them [Kuhn, Loeb & Company] by the publisher of the...revolutionary [Yiddish-language] newspaper Forward of New York..."

Henry Coston, Les financiers qui mènent le monde, Paris, 1955, p. 114.

"...The uprising of July 4, 1917, was intended to overthrow the [Russian] Provisional Government according to the plans of Lenin and Trotsky. The revolutionaries were disconcerted by the intervention of a solitary regiment [of the Russian Army] which had been withdrawn from the front, and scattered. Lenin escaped but Trotsky was arrested. Their cause appeared lost. But the Bolsheviks had given proof of their courage, and a cablegram arrived to bring them news of the financial support of Jacob Schiff [the head of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, New York City, Admiral Strauss's firm], who was determined to push the Russian Revolution to the end. The importance of these funds placed at the disposal of Lenin and Trotsky in order to prevent the Bolshevik insurrection of October 1917 has not been fully realized. This action overthrew the Kerensky Government and set up the Soviet regime. How these funds got to them is known. The United States Government published in October 1918 [Committee on Public Information] a series of official documents entitled The German-Bolshevik Conspiracy."

Henry Coston, Les financiers qui mènent le monde, Paris, 1955, p. 114.

"...Wladimir Olaf Aschberg...acted as the intermediary [in Stockholm] between Kuhn, Loeb & Company in New York City and the banking firm of Max Warburg [in Hamburg] when they were financing the [Bolshevik] revolution of October 1917. Aschberg was the head of the Nya Banken in Stockholm and later, in 1921, founded the Russian Commercial Bank. Thanks to this institution he became in a sense the dictator of Soviet finances."

Henry Coston, Les financiers qui mènent le monde, Paris, 1955, p. 115.

"...The prime movers [for the recognition of the Bolsheviks at the Peace Conference in 1919] were Jacob Schiff, Warburg, and other international financiers, who wished above all to bolster up the...Bolsheviks in order to secure a field for...[the] exploitation of Russia."

Henry Wickham Steed, Through Thirty Years, New York, 1924, Vol. 2, p. 302. [Mr. Steed was the Editor of The Times, London].

"Potent international financial interests were at work [at the Peace Conference in 1919] in favour of the immediate recognition of the Bolsheviks. Those influences had been largely responsible for the Anglo-American proposal in January [1919] to call Bolshevik representatives to Paris at the beginning of the Peace Conference... The well-known American...banker, Mr. Jacob Schiff, was known to be anxious to secure recognition for the Bolsheviks...and Tchtcherin, the Bolshevik Commissary for Foreign Affairs, had revealed the meaning of the January proposal by offering extensive commercial and economic concessions [in the Soviet Union] in return for recognition."

Henry Wickham Steed, Through Thirty Years, New York, 1924, Vol. 2, p. 301. [Mr. Steed was the Editor of The Times, London].

"In the match between these two heavyweights [the United States and the Soviet Union] the International Finance of the United States will have trained the adversary."

Comte de Saint-Aulaire, Geneva Versus Peace, London, 1937, p. 75. [Comte de Saint-Aulaire was the French Ambassador to Great Britain from 1920 until 1924].

"You will think I am hot about this matter [Bolshevism] but it is I feel sure one which is going to bring great trouble on the United States when the judgment of history shall be recorded on the part we have played. It is very largely our fault that Bolshevism has spread as it has..."

The following letter is written by Lewis Lichtenst Strauss, the private secretary of Herbert Hoover, Administrator, United States Food Administration, while in Paris at the end of the First World War, January 20, 1919. This letter is now in the Justice Louis D. Brandeis Collection of the Law Library of the University of Louisville, Louisville 8, Kentucky.

UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION

(Paris, France)

20 January 1919

Dear Justice Brandeis;

Walter Lippman is leaving today and has offered to take you my best regards and this note.

I thought you might be interested to have at second hand some of the news that has just reached us here from our missions that have been able to report. Dr. Taylor returned from Vienna and the Austrian "decrepitation" and Dr. Kellogg has just yesterday gotten in from a two weeks stay in Warsaw.

The political conditions are worse in Austria than in Poland. No less than eleven separate wars are going on east of the Swiss-Austrian frontier, according to Taylor, and he regards the possibilities for successful self-government of the numerous small nations as a remote event, only to be attained after a period of Allied Commission supervision. The Jews do not appear to be suffering in these countries any more than the balance of the population, all of whom, Taylor describes as going about after these four years of exploitation as if in a hypnotic coma.

In Poland, however, the contrary appears to be the case. You are, no doubt, long since aware of the more or less settled political condition due to the formation of the Pilsudski-Paderewski coalition. The Jews, however, are being badly handled. Kellogg reports shooting every night in the ghetto of Warsaw. In the small towns it is worse! The Poles attempt to justify the outrages by the allegation that the Jews are hoarding arms in their homes but fail to explain why attempts at confiscation (which they assert they are) are only made at night and are not followed by arrests. The whole thing is too obvious. I am expecting almost daily, the arrival of two young Jewish lieutenants whom I have been able to have sent for and whom I have known well in Washington where they were stationed. It was my intention to go into Poland myself, but for fear of possibly losing the grip I may have on the situation here by an extended absence it now seems best to send these two men as attaches to our Polish mission but with the understanding between them and myself that their chief duty will be to keep me advised on the Jewish situation here so that I may use what influence I have to make a lever of the food relief. I have talked the matter over with Aaronson.

There is so much to tell you if there was time to go into detail or assurance that you had time to read it if I did, that I am asking Walter to go to Washington to see you as soon as possible after he lands. He is full of the situation, and from political aspects that I know little of. We are all much in need of your advice and I should feel much comforted to have your views on matters where I fear my emotions spoil sound thinking.

I hope that this finds you and your family well.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Dick:

Reference is made to the telephonic request of Robert E. Cushman, Jr., of your staff on March 23, 1960, for information concerning Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr.

② The files of this Bureau reveal that Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr., was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on June 17, 1919.

In 1941 and 1942, Arrowsmith was the subject of a Selective Service - Conscientious Objector investigation conducted by this Bureau. This investigation disclosed that his conscientious objection to service in the military of the ~~United~~ States was based on the Commandment "Thou shalt not kill" and not based on membership in any religious group which advocates nonparticipation in war. Investigation further revealed that he had attended numerous schools throughout the United States, including Johns Hopkins University, Harvard University, and Phillips Academy.

An official of the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, advised representatives of this Bureau, during the course of the above investigation, that Arrowsmith was definitely a psychiatric problem and that his actions were extremely puzzling. He stated Arrowsmith was not entirely mentally ill but suffered from grave peculiarities. One of these was that Arrowsmith was in constant conflict with authority. He also possessed a definitely psychiatric complex about killing and would not eat meat. This official expressed the opinion in 1942 that the United States Government should be thankful that Arrowsmith was not in the armed services and should take every precaution to preclude the possibility of his entering the armed services because he believed Arrowsmith would "blow up" mentally from twenty-four hours to twenty-four days after his induction.

Professors and doctors at Phillips Academy considered Arrowsmith a psychopathic case. One of Arrowsmith's references advised that he, Arrowsmith, was a very unsteady type of person and not capable of correlating his thoughts.

This investigation further revealed that Arrowsmith was extremely pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic in his views.

In 1945, Arrowsmith was again investigated in connection with his association with one Carl Ingve Grundell who was reportedly working for the Nazis. No information was obtained directly implicating Arrowsmith as an agent or collaborator of the German Intelligence Service.

In 1958, this Bureau received information that Arrowsmith was an acquaintance and associate of G. Lincoln Rockwell, editor of "The Virginian," a pro-segregation magazine. One individual advised that Arrowsmith purchased a printing press and later a house which Rockwell occupied. Arrowsmith displayed numerous anti-Semitic articles which were to be printed by Rockwell. This individual stated that Arrowsmith showed him posters which were to be printed with such slogans as "Communism is Jewism" and "Free Palestine from the Jews."

Numerous articles appeared in New York and Washington newspapers in October, 1958, which related the association of Arrowsmith and Rockwell and their attacks on "communist Zionists."

There is indication from the investigations conducted that Arrowsmith is comfortably wealthy with income from investments. Reportedly, his family owns the controlling stock of Dun and Bradstreet, Incorporated. (25-59542)

Mr. Brownsmith said that his main interest at the present time was to bring to light the facts about the "Hitler conspiracy" in America. This conspiracy had penetrated so deeply and created so much fear in political circles and under levels of the Government that only a private citizen who had nothing to lose and was motivated by a sense of loyalty to his country could hope to move successfully against the Hitlerite.

Mr. Brownsmith said that after months of research he had determined to concentrate his efforts on two specific points of Hitlerite vulnerability. First, he hoped to persuade the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department to re-examine the payment system of the Jewish Telegraph Agency. This agency was the only substantial news service in this country which possessed the "black" system. Its status had been recorded in 1936 as the leading grounds of a plan that only through a news agency such as this could the influence of countless Jewish colleges throughout the world be maintained. The Jewish Telegraph Agency was now clearly a most effective propaganda arm of the International Jewish movement. Secondly, Mr. Brownsmith stated, he sought to force the registration, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, of the World Jewish Organization leaders in this country. In this regard, he wondered whether the Department of State could provide him with any proof that the World Jewish Organization was an "instrumentality" of the Israel Government. He felt sure that the Department could provide much information if it was not too afraid of Zionist influence. Further, he wondered whether the Department regarded the Israel Government Yearbook as an authoritative expression of Israel Government views and policy. This was important since in the Israel Government Yearbook for 1959/60 the World Zionist Organization was listed as an agency of the Israel Government.

Mr. Crawford replied that the State Department was responsible for the maintenance of relations with the State of Israel, a country with which the United States was happily on very good terms. The Department was not primarily responsible for matters affecting the internal security of the United States, nor did it have any role in determining the activities of private groups. These were properly matters of concern, respectively, to the Departments of Justice and Treasury. Thus, the Department was not in a position to provide Mr. Brownwith with any sort of proof that the World Zionist Organization was or was not an "instrumentality" of the Israel Government. With respect to the Israel Government Yearbook, the Israel Government expressed the policies of the Israel Government. Mr. Brownwith might wish to inquire of the Israel Embassy in Washington.

Mr. Arrowsmith called (without appointment) to request the Department's assistance in translating certain "highly sensitive" material bearing on the "Zionist conspiracy" in the United States and, specifically, the "machinations" of Zionist forces which "got the United States into the First World War". Mr. Arrowsmith asserted that he was making this request of the Department because he had been unable to find any Hebrew translator who would not have divided loyalty.

Mr. Crawford replied that he did not feel that it would be appropriate to approve utilization of Department of State translation facilities for a private research project, particularly one in which the Department of State had no active interest.

Harold N. Arrowsmith

In 1945, Arrowsmith was again investigated in connection with his association with one Carl Yngve Grundell who was reportedly working for the Nazis. No information was obtained directly implicating Arrowsmith as an agent or collaborator of the then German Intelligence Service.

In 1958, information was received that Arrowsmith was an acquaintance and associate of G. Lincoln Rockwell, editor of "The Virginian," a pro-segregation magazine. One individual advised that Arrowsmith purchased a printing press and later a house which Rockwell occupied. Arrowsmith displayed numerous anti-Semitic articles which were to be printed by Rockwell. This individual advised that Rockwell showed him posters which were to be printed with such slogans as "Communism is Judaism" and "Free Palestine from the Jews." Numerous articles appeared in New York, New York, and Washington, D. C., newspapers in October, 1958, which related to the association of Arrowsmith and Rockwell and their attacks on "communist Zionists." In August, 1960, it was reported that Arrowsmith's main interest at that time was bringing to light the facts about the "Zionist conspiracy" in America.

There is indication from the investigations conducted concerning Arrowsmith that he is comfortably wealthy with income from investments. Reportedly, his family owns the controlling stock of Dun and Bradstreet, Incorporated.

SUBJECT: HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH, JR.

Mr. William O. Boswell, Director, Office of Security, Department of State, furnished Special Agent Orrin H. Bartlett of the Liaison Section a letter dated 5-23-61 which he had received from captioned individual. This letter enclosed five copies of a letter written by the Director to the Department of State on 2-23-21 when Mr. Hoover was Special Assistant to the Attorney General. Mr. Hoover's letter concerned a list received from the American Consul at Reval, Esthonia, of persons in America receiving Bolshevik propaganda. Felix Frankfurter was included as one of the names on this list.

According to Arrowsmith's letter, he has been engaged for a number of years in research connected with the development of the international communist conspiracy. The Director's letter, according to Arrowsmith, was discovered in March, 1961, while he was searching the files of the Department of State.

INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

No reference could be located in Bureau files regarding the above letter by the Director dated 2-23-21. Mr. O. George Meddler of the Files and Communications Division caused a search to be made of the Department of Justice files in an effort to identify the communication allegedly copied by Arrowsmith. The letter, dated 2-23-21, was located by the Department and a copy is attached. Review of this communication reflects the copy Arrowsmith sent to Boswell was an exact quotation of the body of Mr. Hoover's letter to W. L. Hurley of the Department of State.

Boswell assumed his present position in the Summer of 1959, and we have enjoyed cordial relations with him; however, on 3-1-61, Boswell spoke at a briefing of a group of members of the House Appropriations Subcommittee which was attended by Messrs. Mohr and Parsons. In explaining the State Department's efforts in the countermeasure field, Boswell stated that the FBI had made no contributions. He was challenged by Mr. Mohr and Chairman Rooney was advised of the FBI's contributions to this program and, in particular, he was informed that at one time the FBI did the countermeasure work for the State Department and our representatives had visited Moscow and other installations in this connection. This exchange arose when Boswell denied the fact that the FBI had suggested the idea of the plastic room within a room. Regarding this incident, the Director noted, "I am glad Mohr took on Boswell so forcefully. No one gets anywhere with palliation." (62-39749-2626; 105-19581-522)

Jones to DeLoach Memo
Re: Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr.

Attached is a DeLoach to Mohr memorandum dated 1-12-60 entitled "Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr., Baltimore, Maryland, George Lincoln Rockwell, Racial Matters" which contains a summary of information in Bufiles regarding Arrowsmith. (25-59542-10) It is noted that Arrowsmith filed a libel suit against Atlanta Newspapers, Inc., in February, 1960, for $1,000,000 damages. In his suit, Arrowsmith complained about a nationally syndicated column by Drew Pearson, "Washington Merry-Go-Round," published in the "Atlanta Journal" on 2-17-59, and a story in the "Atlanta Constitution" on 10-18-59. Both articles concerned the bombing of The Temple of Atlanta on 10-12-58. The suit claims that Arrowsmith was subjected to "public hate, contempt and ridicule." He amended this action on 3-28-60 to include an additional $250,000 for "special damages" incurred when he was forced to hire bodyguards after threats in anonymous letters and phone calls. On 5-12-61, the Atlanta Office advised this trial was scheduled to be heard on 5-29-61.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Special Agent Bartlett orally brief Mr. Boswell regarding Arrowsmith's background.

Mr. William O. Boswell
Director, Office of Security

Dear Mr. Boswell:

For a number of years I have been engaged in research connected with the development of the international communist conspiracy, carried on, in part, in the files of the Department of State and the Library of Congress.

On March 10, 1961, while searching the files of the Department of State, I located a letter, 5 copies of which are enclosed, from J. Edgar Hoover, of the Department of Justice, to the Department of State, dated February 23, 1921. In this letter Mr. Hoover said he knew that Felix Frankfurter, at that time a professor of law at Harvard University, was an active and important participant in the communist movement.

Being aware of the history of Felix Frankfurter to date, I turned over a copy of the letter to the Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee, Mr. Jay Sourwine, on March 30, 1961. Somewhat later on copies were made available to the House Committee on Un-American Activities and certain members of Congress.

It is obvious that any person recommended for Federal employment by Felix Frankfurter would have to conform, at least in a general manner, to his own predilections. This includes the Department of State.

Please let me know if I can be of any assistance to you in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr.

Mr. M.A. Jones' memorandum of 6-2-61, attached, discussed a letter which had been found by the subject in files of the Department of State on deposit with the National Archives. This letter, dated February 23, 1921, was forwarded to State under the signature of Mr. Hoover, in his then capacity as Special Assistant to the Attorney General. The Director inquired how such a character as the subject could secure access to State files and approved briefing Mr. Boswell of State concerning the subject's background.

On 6-7-61, Mr. O.H. Bartlett of the Liaison Section informed Mr. Boswell concerning the background of Arrowsmith. Mr. Boswell expressed his appreciation for the briefing on this matter.

Mr. Boswell pointed out that the subject does not have access to the current files of the State Department, but has apparently examined old State files now maintained by Archives. He advised that State releases such files after they are 25 years old, provided such action does not jeopardize relations with friendly nations. He indicated that this is a general practice which makes material available through National Archives to historians and others interested in research work. State could not, however, declassify FBI or other documents which had been given a security classification.

We inquired on June 8, 1961, of Archives regarding their general restrictions on access to documents over 25 years in age, and we were informed that they are governed by restrictions imposed by the Department supplying the document. It will be recalled that we have encountered this problem before in connection with Bureau reports and documents contained in Department of Justice files now in the custody of Archives. Through the Department, we have informed Archives that access to FBI documents should continue to be restricted regardless of their age.

The letter in question, found by Arrowsmith, was a letter from the Department of Justice to the Department of State rather than from the FBI to State and thus would not be covered by any restrictions on FBI correspondence which we might see fit to have State place on Archives.

Re: HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH, JR.

RECOMMENDATION:

We have run into this problem of FBI correspondence in Archives before. As mentioned above, we have taken steps through the Department of Justice to safeguard FBI information in old Justice files now in Archives. Likewise, in connection with the Morgenthau Diary, we have had our Agents go through this voluminous Diary over a period of weeks in order to abstract FBI documents so that they would not be available to researchers. This can well be a continuing problem with other Departments to whom we have sent documents.

It is recommended that through liaison, we find out from Archives what Government departments send their old records there for storage. We can then determine the extent of the problem and, if necessary, we can then go to these other departments and ask that special restrictions be placed on material prepared by us. After we have found out how large a problem exists, we will again take this matter up with State, if it appears that inadequate restrictions have been placed on access to our material.

Reference is made to Jones to DeLoach memorandum dated 6-2-61, advising that captioned individual, while engaged in research at the Archives, had located a letter over the signature of J.E. Hoover, then Special Assistant to the Attorney General, to the Department of State on 2-23-21. The letter, according to Arrowsmith, was discovered in March, 1961, while he was searching the files of the Department of State. Arrowsmith furnished copies of this letter to State and may have publicized it otherwise.

On 6-22-61, Mr. Frank Waikart of the Records Section and Mr. Robert H. Haynes of the Liaison Section were discussing another matter (general restrictions on FBI records; subject of another memorandum) with Dr. Robert H. Bahmer, Deputy Archivist of the United States, and he mentioned that Archives was getting considerable pressure from the "Hill" for access to the 2-23-21 letter. He specifically mentioned that a staff member of the Republican Policy Committee had requested access and that he currently has a letter from Congressman N.M. Mason (R-Illinois) requesting a copy of the letter.

Dr. Bahmer stated that the 2-23-21 letter should not have been made available by Archives to Arrowsmith or any one else under currently existing regulations of the National Archives. Arrowsmith's access to the letter was the result of human error of Archives employees in not removing this letter prior to making other State Department documents available to Arrowsmith. He stated that since this matter has come to the attention of Archives, access to the letter has been denied under existing regulations.

Dr. Bahmer advised that requests made of Archives for the letter have been denied under existing Archives policy and that he intends to respond to Congressman Mason's letter in the same manner, informing him that Archives' regulations prohibit the release of this letter. He said he would furnish copies of this correspondence to the Bureau.

BACKGROUND:

By letter dated 6-22-61, Robert H. Bahmer, Acting Archivist of the U. S., enclosed for the Director's consideration a letter his office had received from Congressman Noah M. Mason dated 6-20-61. Mason desired a photostat of a letter from Mr. Hoover to Mr. W. L. Hurley, Office of the Under Secretary of State, Department of State, dated 2-23-21. Bahmer replied that the Archives have agreed with all Federal investigative agencies not to make available records of investigations without the consent of the originating agency and, therefore, he could not comply with Mason's request. Mason was advised that his letter was being forwarded to the FBI for its consideration.

By way of background, the 2-23-21 letter from the Director to which Mason refers is the same letter Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr., has recently been circulating and came to our attention through Mr. William O. Boswell, Director, Office of Security, Department of State. In a letter dated 5-23-61 to Boswell Arrowsmith enclosed five copies of the letter dated 2-23-21 from Mr. Hoover, who was then Special Assistant to the Attorney General. Mr. Hoover's letter concerned a list received from the American Consul at Reval, Esthonia, of persons in America receiving Bolshevik propaganda. Felix Frankfurter was included as one of the names on this list. According to Arrowsmith, the Director's letter was discovered in March, 1961, while he was "searching the files of the Department of State." Arrowsmith indicated to Bahmer that he had turned copies of Mr. Hoover's letter over to Mr. Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Sub-Committee the House Committee on Un-American Activities and certain members of Congress. In this connection the Director has noted that "while letter bears the signature 'J. E. Hoover' it is not the one used when I personally sign mail. I note it was dictated by 'W. W. G.' the initials of Warren W. Grimes who was a Bureau supervisor in 1921."

It was subsequently determined that actually Arrowsmith was searching State Department files which were over 25 years old and stored at the Archives. Through liaison contact with Dr. Bahmer, it was determined that Arrowsmith's access to the letter was the result of human error of Archives employees in not removing the letter prior to making other State Department documents available to Arrowsmith. Bahmer indicated that Arrowsmith was getting considerable pressure from the "Hill" for access to the 2-23-21 letter. Since this matter has come to the attention of Archives, access to Mason of the letter has been denied under the existing regulations and Bahmer advised he intended to respond to Congressman Mason in this manner. Dr. Bahmer expressed hope that since he has denied access to the document the Bureau would not later release the document.

Congressman Noah M. Mason:

Mason is a Republican from Oglesby, Illinois, representing the 15th District. He was born in Wales, 7-19-82, received a bachelor of education degree and was in school work for 33 years as teacher, principal and superintendent. He was elected to the 76th Congress and to each succeeding Congress. Mason toured the FBI 1-27-38 and expressed his appreciation. A news article in May, 1940, revealed that, in connection with the testimony of a high ranking communist before the Dies Committee, Mason stated he was shocked "at the evidence of the laxness and negligence the Department of Justice has shown in this matter, and at the failure of the Department to uncover and prosecute these undercover agents of the Soviet government." According to a December 4, 1940, article in the "Waukegan Post," Waukegan, Illinois, Mason had delivered an address in which he "revealed that the Dies Committee had uncovered foreign agents working within the Federal Bureau of Investigation." Further, "The Dies Committee exposed a group of 15 radicals who were working in the FBI carefully destroying fingerprints that had been filed. They were fired, but the same day the entire group went over to the Social Security and were re-hired." The Director wrote Mason regarding his erroneous statement. Mason toured the Bureau 9-8-48, at which time he spoke commendably of the Bureau. He has referred constituent matters to the Bureau in the past.

Herbert N. Arrowsmith, Jr.:

Briefly, Bufiles reflect that Arrowsmith was born 6-17-19 at Baltimore, Maryland. He apparently derives his money from his family's ownership of a large portion of the stock in Dun and Bradstreet. In 1941 and 42, Arrowsmith was investigated as a conscientious objector--objection based on the Commandment "Thou shalt not kill." His academic records at various schools, including Johns Hopkins and Harvard Universities were very poor and he was expelled from at least one school for his poor scholastic record. Representatives of the schools reported that he was definitely a psychiatric problem and that he was a very peculiar personality who was strictly a "loner." He suffered from grave peculiarities including the fact that he was constantly in conflict with any authority, possessed a definite psychiatric complex and would not eat meat. One doctor expressed the view that he believed

Jones to DeLoach Memo
Re: Congressman N. M. Mason

Arrowsmith would "blow up mentally" within 24 hours to 24 days should he be inducted into the armed services. Arrowsmith was also investigated for an allegation of German sympathy and espionage activity during World War II but there was no substantial indication that he was directly implicated as an agent of the Nazis. He was not interviewed because of his unstable mental condition.

Arrowsmith is admittedly very anti-Semitic and he was the owner of the house and printing press in Arlington, Virginia, where George Lincoln Rockwell lived and published "The Virginian," an extremely anti-Semitic newspaper. Rockwell is, of course, the well-known, self-styled Nazi in Arlington. In an interview with Arrowsmith in 1958, he stated he had financed the publication of material opposing the Jews and anti-Jewish demonstrations in the South. It should be noted that a Jewish Temple at Atlanta was bombed in October, 1958. He claimed to be opposed to violence. It was determined that Arrowsmith had lived in Germany from 1950 until 1956 and according to a news item in 1958 his mother indicated he devoted his whole time to studies and research of Nordic and Mediterranean racial characteristics to prove his belief that Nordic stock is superior. He also contributed $300 to the unsuccessful Senatorial campaign of Rear Admiral John G. Crommelin, an "open anti-Semitic."

Arrowsmith has made a nuisance of himself in the office of Richard Arens and Colonel William F. Heimlich at the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He contacted the Baltimore Office in 1959 stating he planned legal action against certain unnamed newspapers and newspaper services for exaggerated statements made about him in connection with the bombing of the Jewish Temple in Atlanta. In 1959 it was reported that he was going to obtain the names and addresses of students at Harvard University and mail them literature "insulting" to the Jews.

RECOMMENDATION:

To have someone in your office contact Congressman Mason and briefly outline the background of Arrowsmith inasmuch as Arrowsmith is apparently responsible for this matter of Mr. Hoover's letter of 2-23-21 coming to the attention of Mason. It is felt that this would best preclude any further follow-up by the Congressman.

Congressman James C. Davis (D. - Ga.), over the years, has been a strong supporter of the FBI.

At 3:30 p.m., 9-6-61, Gwen Patton, Secretary to Congressman Davis, telephoned my office and in my absence talked to Wick. She said the Congressman would like to have the FBI obtain and give to Congressman Davis a Photostat of a letter written by Mr. Hoover dated 2-23-21. This letter, she stated, is in National Archives, in Department of State files and was written by Mr. Hoover in 1921 when Special Assistant to the Attorney General and addressed to Mr. W. L. Hurley, the Undersecretary of State. It has to do, she said, with the dissemination of Bolshevik propaganda and names Felix Frankfurter as one of the persons known to be active in the movement. She stated the letter could be found in National Archives in the section captioned "1910-1929" and the decimal number is 861.00-8795.

Wick told her he did not know whether such letter could be made available, he doubted it, but a check would be made.

As you recall, the memorandum from Mr. Jones to me dated 9-5-61 captioned Senator Strom Thurmond related to the same matter wherein Willis A. Carto, Chairman of Liberty Lobby, was said to have directed the letter to Senator Thurmond 7-15-61 enclosing a copy of the 2-23-21 letter by the Director. Carto is endeavoring to obtain a Photostat of the original document and wanted the Senator's assistance. Wayne C. Grover, Archivist of the United States, referred the matter to us.

The matter has come up before early this year. It was determined that Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr., had been searching State Department files in the Archives more than 25 years old, came upon the letter which had not been removed prior to making such files available to Arrowsmith. Archives has denied access to copies of the letter under existing regulations.

Director, FBI

HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH, JR.
300 NEW JERSEY AVENUE, SOUTHEAST
WASHINGTON 3, D. C.

On October 19, 1961, Mr. Charles Kreiner, Branch Manager, Polychrome Corporation, 432 Massachusetts Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C., visited FBI Headquarters and spoke to one of my assistants.

Kreiner advised that his firm is engaged in the manufacture and sale of printing supplies. During the past week he was visited by Arrowsmith who purchased some material from him and he engaged in conversation with him which indicated that Arrowsmith is apparently preaching a dangerous doctrine. Arrowsmith told him that he conducts investigations concerning the influences exerted by the Jewish race on the American Government and has a mailing list of approximately 5,000 individuals to whom he mails his material. According to Kreiner, Arrowsmith stated that the Jews have been responsible for the entry of the United States into World Wars I and II and the Korean War. He told Kreiner that he had recently been to Germany where he spent about four months and spoke to a number of individuals there pointing out the influences that the Jewish people have exerted in connection with recent American conflicts. Kreiner stated he is fearful that if his name is included on Arrowsmith's mailing list, he is likely to get in bad with the United States Government and be handicapped in his business relations with the Government.

Bufiles reflect that Arrowsmith has been associated in the past with G. Lincoln Rockwell of the American Nazi Party. He is violently anti-Semitic and is extremely pro-Nazi. There are indications that Arrowsmith has some mental difficulty. Recently, Arrowsmith has been known to be conducting research in the files of the National Archives and has based some of his literature upon the results of his efforts. He was the subject of a Conscientious Objector investigation in 1941 and 1942.

The foregoing is for your information.

NOTE: Kreiner spoke to SA John W. O'Brien of the Crime Research Section. He appeared seriously concerned about Arrowsmith's attitude. Bufiles contain no information identifiable with Kreiner.

Dr. E.G. One evening while they were having dinner at one of the cafes, an American approached their table and asked if he might join them. This gentleman showed them a card with the name Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr., 300 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C., phone number LI-6-6611. He claimed to be an investigator for a group of Senators or Congressmen. Dr. Schrieber does not recall whom he represented, however, during the ensuing conversation, Mr. Arrowsmith made the statement that all subversives are Jewish. He accused Justice Frankfurter and all men in an Advisory capacity around Kennedy of being Communist and Jews. He also accused all Presidents from Wilson to the present time of being subversive or Communist.

IF ATOM BOMBS FALL -WHO IS TO BLAME?

THE FUCHS SPY RING

Eight Were Jews

- HARRY GOLD (Jew name Goldodnitsky). A chemist, he was born in Switzerland of Russian Jewish parents, and was an important member of the Fuchs ring. He studied at Drexel University, University of Pennsylvania, and Xavier University. He served mainly as a courier between Fuchs and other members of the ring employed in strategic atomic installations. Arrested in May of 1950, he pleaded guilty of espionage and received 30 years in prison.
- DAVID GREENGLASS: His father was a Russian Jew, his mother a Polish Jewess. Between 1943 and 1946 he was employed at the vital Los Alamos installation while Oppenheimer was in charge there. He pleaded guilty and was convicted of passing atomic secrets to Harry Gold, who transmitted them to Fuchs. He also gave information directly to the Russian government through its New York consul, Anatole Yakovlev.
- ABRAHAM BROTHMAN: So valuable was his contribution that a Russian official allegedly told him his efforts were worth two brigades to Soviet Russia. He was arrested July 27, 1950 for conspiracy in connection with the Fuchs ring. He headed the engineering firm of A. Brothman & Associates, Long Island, N. Y.
- MIRIAM MOSKOWITZ: A graduate of the City College of NYC, she was arrested August 17, 1950 as part of the same apparatus. This Jewess was employed by the War Manpower Commission between 1942-44, and after that was associated with the Brothman firm.
- SIDNEY WEINBAUM: A product of Russia's "Charkoff" Institute of Technology, he came to the U. S. in 1922. His original name was Israel Weinbaum; his communist party name was Sidney Empson. He was connected with the radiation laboratory at Cal-Tech for four years, during which time he passed atom secrets to Fuchs and company.
- JULIUS FUCHS: Interned as an alien at the beginning of the war, he was released from British custody and admitted to the U. S. at the personal instigation of Albert Einstein. Fuchs had access to our innermost atomic secrets between 1942 and 1945 when he was employed at the Los Alamos installation under the supervision of Oppenheimer, and he is said to be one of the few men familiar with the overall construction of the A-bomb. He is now serving a penitentiary sentence in England for espionage.
- MORTON SOBELL: A radar expert, he fled to Mexico to escape arrest, was returned by Mexican authorities. He pleaded not guilty, was convicted and sentenced to 30 years in prison. He gave Rosenberg radar secrets.
- ETHEL ROSENBERG: The wife of Julius Rosenberg, she was convicted for spying and was sentenced to death.
- JULIUS ROSENBERG: Said to have recruited Gold and Greenglass into the spy ring in 1945. A product of the City College of NYC, he is charged with passing atomic information to Gold. He pleaded not guilty, received death sentence.

Russia may destroy America. Millions may die - Why? At the end of World War II, Russia was almost levelled after its war with Germany which wrecked half the Soviet Union. Russia had NO Atomic energy project. It was impossible for Communist Russia to ever overtake the American advances in the Atomic energy field. But Russia did catch up and actually PASS the U.S.A. in the deadly race for Atomic weapons.

HOW DID IT HAPPEN

Communists had taken vital posts in the Roosevelt administration. During the war to destroy Germany, being a communist was the best way to get a job in Washington.

- 1.) Albert Einstein, member of 16 communist fronts, got Klaus Fuchs, a stateless Jew, a job at the vital Los Alamos Atomic Energy Project.
- 2.) David Lillienthal member of 2 communist fronts ordered building of the H-Bomb stopped in the interest of "World Peace."
- 3.) Anna M. Rosenberg, former communist party member was named Assist. Secy., of Defense. She placed untold numbers of Jews in security positions. Under Civil Service where they can not be fired.

Within this web of subversion a highly organized communist spy ring was established. Every American atom secret went to Russia, plus all other vital military secrets.

The secret communist spy master was Klaus Fuchs.

In Communist Russia the head of the Secret Police was the Jew Lavrenti Beria. He also headed the new Russian Atomic Energy project.

On the American Atomic Energy board of control 3 of the 5 members were Jews, L.L. Straus, David Lillienthal and P.F. Bacher. They voted to stop research on the H-bomb and neutron-bomb projects. They held America back, while Russia forged ahead with all our secret plans.

Russia now demands the World surrender to communist enslavement or be destroyed. Communist Jew spy rings have betrayed America.

Russia would not be a world power today, would not yet even have the smallest atom bomb if Jew traitors had not committed treason and sabotaged future atomic weapons research.

THESE ARE THE SECRETS RUSSIA GOT MILITARY

Klaus Fuchs, old of bomb he helped develop.

Morton Sobell, C.N.Y. graduate, got electron data.

Julius Rosenberg, off. Y., milked Greenglass, bell.

Ethel Rosenberg hell get secrets from Greenglass.

Harry Gold, of ill., pumped Fuchs, Sladgers.

David Greenglass, Army corporal, gave Los Alamos data.

Abe Brothman, accused of giving synthetic-rubber data.

If atomic bombs fall on America and millions die, BLAME THE JEWS. While it is not true that all Jews are Communists, IT IS TRUE that every communist spy ring has been run by Jews, that Jews are in the majority in the US Communist Party leadership. Also the Jews remain in control of Russia despite any false propaganda to the contrary. The Jews are America's Ackellies heel. Unless Americans awaken to Jewish treason we will fall. Alerting the world to the menace of Judaism may yet save the Universe from going up in the smoke of an atomic holocaust.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. DeLoach

DATE: 10-19-61

FROM : M. A. Jones

SUBJECT: RECENT INQUIRIES REGARDING
LETTER OF 2-23-21 BY DIRECTOR
MENTIONING JUSTICE FRANKFURTER
PRESENTLY LOCATED IN U. S. ARCHIVES

BACKGROUND:

Harold Noel Arrowsmith Jr.

You will recall that recent inquiries have been received, many of them from Congressmen on constituent matters, dealing with a letter dated 2-23-21 over the signature of J. E. Hoover, then Special Assistant to the Attorney General, to the Department of State. The existence of this letter came to light when it was inadvertently made available to Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr., while Arrowsmith was perusing State Department documents maintained at the National Archives. The letter in question mentions Felix Frankfurter, now a Supreme Court Justice and Arrowsmith who is a racist and has been described as a psychotic, extremely pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic, has been circulating a copy of the 2-23-21 letter in an attempt to discredit Justice Frankfurter.

Since the above incident, Dr. Robert H. Bahmer, acting archivist of the United States, has denied further access to this document.

In connection with the actual signer of the document in question, the Director has noted: "While letter bears the signature 'J. E. Hoover,' it is not the one used when I personally sign mail. I note it was dictated by 'WWG' the initials of Warren W. Grimes, who was a Bureau supervisor in 1921."

OBSERVATIONS:

As the yellow file copy of the 2-23-21 letter has been obtained from the Department of Justice, it is felt desirable to also obtain the original document so that both may be maintained together in FBI files which would further safeguard its indiscriminate circulation because of the confidential nature of FBI files. In this regard, it is noted that after 25 years, certain documents of such agencies as the Department of State are turned over to the Archives for historical purposes. Consequently, this does not afford adequate protection to documents which originated with the Bureau and directed to other agencies such as the Department of State, even though Archives has advised they will continue to restrict FBI documents regardless of age.

RE: RECENT INQUIRIES REGARDING
LETTER OF 2/23/21 BY DIRECTOR
MENTIONING JUSTICE FRANKFURTER
PRESENTLY LOCATED IN U.S. ARCHIVES

ADDENDUM BY DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE DIVISION: (GAD:mls - 10/23/61)

The Domestic Intelligence Division feels that asking State to retrieve the original letter from Archives and give it to us will only have the effect of calling the letter to the attention of persons at both State and Archives who may not now be aware of it. It is noted that Arrowsmith has circulated the letter rather widely; that Justice Frankfurter himself is apparently aware of the letter; that a firm agreement has been made by Archives to restrict access to all FBI documents, regardless of age; and that securing the original now is locking the barn door much too late. In fact, any Bureau effort to retrieve the original of this document would merely substantiate the charge made in the attached "hate sheet" and would leave the Bureau wide open to unfavorable press attention. It is, therefore, recommended that the Bureau let the letter rest in Archives and make no effort to retrieve it.

Hon. Dean Rusk
Secretary of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

While engaged in historical research here in Marburg, Germany, I have become acquainted with an American "professor?" whose card reads

Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr.
300 New Jersey Avenue, S.E.
Washington 3, D. C.

Mr. Arrowsmith claims to be an agent of several Congressional investigating committees and, as has been made evident by conversation and an exhibit of some of his notes, is engaged in avid research designed to prove Jewish responsibility for American entry into World War I and for the Bolshevik movement in Russia. This is accompanied by a libeling of some of the top figures of our government and an assertion that the Harvard campus is under complete control of the Communists! It would seem to me that the line of conversation which he follows is most damaging to the best interests of our country in this time of crisis.

I realize, of course, that the State Department has little control over either amiable or unamiable fanatics, but it would seem proper to me to determine whether such activity is purely a private line of prejudice or may have some other backing.

Please do not trouble to reply to this note. I have by it, I hope, fulfilled what I felt were my obligations as a citizen and am content to let appropriate action rest in your hands.

Sincerely,

Karl R. Beck
Professor of History

ROBERT SPARKS advised 6/22/62 that jury verdict in captioned civil case returned same date was in favor of plaintiff, ARROWSMITH, and against defendant, Atlanta Newspapers, Inc., awarding plaintiff sum of $1.00 (one dollar) damages. AUSA SPARKS knows of no contemplated appeal action at this time.

Since Bureau personnel and files appear to be in no further jeopardy at this time from subpoena action on part of plaintiff's attorney, REUBEN GARLAND, no further action contemplated by Atlanta, UACB. Should matter again arise, Bureau will be appropriately advised.

FROM : SAC, NEW YORK (105-0)

SUBJECT: HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH
300 NEW JERSEY AVENUE, SOUTHEAST,
WASHINGTON, D.C.
INFORMATION CONCERNING

On 8/14/62, Col. EDMOND ROWAN, the Director of Humane Work, ASPCA, 92nd Street and York Avenue, NYC, contacted the NYO. He stated that H. N. ARROWSMITH 300 New Jersey Avenue, Southeast, Washington, D.C., had been in contact with his organization on 8/13/62, concerning the humane slaughter of animals. He stated that ARROWSMITH, a very articulate individual, had apparently done a large amount of research into the Zionist Movement. Among other things, ARROWSMITH stated that he was going after the State of NY for permitting the slaughter of animals and retaining on the State payroll, a Rabbi BAUM for the purposes of passing on kosher slaughtering. In addition, he intended to go after the Federal Government to request the Justice Department to have the Zionist group register as agents of a foreign government. ROWAN also stated that ARROWSMITH mentioned that the Indianapolis Coca-Cola Bottling Company was forced to pay an unidentified rabbi $30,000.00 to pass their product as kosher.

NYO indices contain a Department of State Memorandum of Conversation dated 8/15/60, concerning the Zionist conspiracy in America wherein the participants were Mr. H. N. ARROWSMITH and Mr. WILLIAM R. CRAWFORD, JR., Desk Officer, Israel-Lebanon Affairs. In this memorandum ARROWSMITH stated that his main interest was bringing to light the facts about the "Zionist conspiracy in America". Specifically, he hoped to persuade the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

DATE: 10/8/62

FROM : SAC, BALTIMORE (157-27)

SUBJECT: HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH
RACIAL MATTERS

On October 4, 1962, HAROLD N. ARROWSMITH appeared at the Baltimore Office and advised that he is presently suing the Daily News of New York City for defamation of character and libel as a result of newspaper articles which appeared in the New York Daily News which ARROWSMITH claims defamed his character. ARROWSMITH stated that he had just recently concluded a similar law suit against a newspaper in Atlanta, which resulted in a nominal verdict of six cents in his favor. He stated that in his law suit in Atlanta he attempted to subpoena the records of the FBI to assist him in his lawsuit. He said, however, that he was unsuccessful in getting the FBI records produced. ARROWSMITH advised that his purpose in calling at the Baltimore Office was to determine what procedure he should follow in order to obtain records of the FBI in his law suit against the Daily News.

ARROWSMITH was advised that the records of the FBI were confidential and that under Departmental Order #260-62, information contained in FBI files could not be divulged. ARROWSMITH was not in any manner antagonistic; however, he rambled considerably at length expressing his anti-semitic feelings. At times, ARROWSMITH's conversations were incoherent and illogical and he gave indications of being mentally sick. When he departed from the office, even though he was told that FBI records would not be produced in his behalf on a civil suit, he indicated that he might still request his attorney to subpoena FBI records, as he felt that this would be a very great help to him in getting a verdict in his favor against the Daily News newspaper.

ASAC Bryant of New York called and advised that H. N. Arrowsmith of the Commodore Hotel, New York City, had telephonically contacted the New York Office today.

Arrowsmith stated that he had filed a 4 1/2 million dollar libel suit against the Hearst newspaper in Atlanta in connection with stories carried in the paper describing him as the organizer and financier of the group which bombed the Jewish Temple in Atlanta in October, 1958.

Arrowsmith stated that in connection with his libel suit a subpoena had been issued requiring the SAC in Atlanta to appear and testify as a witness for Arrowsmith; however when the SAC appeared in answer to the subpoena, he declined to testify under Departmental Order relative to the confidential nature of Bureau files.

Arrowsmith added that he had discussed with the Department the possibility of making pertinent information in Bureau files available to him and the Department had declined to make such information available. He made no specific request of the New York Office but stated he desired to pursue the matter further with the Department.

Arrowsmith was advised that the Departmental representative in New York City was the U. S. Attorney and it was suggested he contact that office concerning the matter. He stated he would do so.

By way of background it should be noted that in June, 1962, Arrowsmith subpoenaed Mr. N. R. Johnson, the former SAC of the Atlanta Office, to appear in U. S. District Court, Atlanta, in connection with his suit about a nationally syndicated column by Drew Pearson which was published in the "Atlanta Journal," 2/17/59 and a story in the "Atlanta Constitution" on 10/18/59. Both articles concerned the bombing of The Temple in Atlanta on 10/12/58. The suit claimed Arrowsmith was subjected to "public hate, contempt and ridicule."

RE: HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH

Mr. Johnson appeared at a pretrial hearing in U. S. District Court with the U. S. Attorney in Atlanta who moved to quash the subpoena. The U. S. District Judge at the time stated he would rule on the motion later in the trial. The trial ended without the subject again coming up.

Arrowsmith has long been active in anti-Semitic activities and was the original "angel" behind George Lincoln Rockwell and his American Nazi Party.

Arrowsmith sued the Hearst newspaper chain in Atlanta in 1962 and received a nominal verdict in the amount of $1. Arrowsmith had subpoenaed former SAC N. Johnson and present SAC McMahon of Atlanta. Former SAC Johnson appeared in court and U. S. Attorney moved to quash subpoena. U. S. District Judge Hooper took motion under advisement and Johnson was never called. U. S. Attorney moved to quash subpoena of SAC McMahon and this was granted. Arrowsmith telephonically contacted New York Office on 2-27-63, and indicated he may desire to subpoena Assistant Director Malone. Department has been advised and desired copies of pleadings in civil suit Southern District of New York. Complaint in civil suit will be discussed with Department today and, if Assistant Director Malone is subpoenaed, appropriate action will be taken.

Arrowsmith has brought libel action against the Hearst Corporation for five million dollars based on allegedly libelous newspaper articles including a column by Drew Pearson. Pearson's column mentioned that Arrowsmith had been interviewed by the FBI in connection with the investigation into the bombing of synagogues in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1958. Arrowsmith was actually interviewed by the Bureau in that case.

On 3/4/63 Arrowsmith appeared at the New York Office with a subpoena for Assistant Director John Malone of the New York Office calling for his appearance in U. S. District Court for the Southern District of New York on 3/5/63 with "statements of the results of the FBI investigation of the dynamiting of the Jewish Temple, Atlanta, Georgia, 10/12/58."

ASAC Alton Bryant of the New York Office has advised that a representative of the Bureau will have to make an appearance at 1:50 p.m. in the courtroom. Since the subpoena was not personally served on Malone, the U. S. Attorney's office has advised that Mr. Malone will not have to appear but he may be represented by an Agent of the office.

ASAC Bryant will appear in the courtroom accompanied by Assistant U. S. Attorney Steve Kauffman. Assistant U. S. Attorney Kauffman will move to quash the subpoena on two grounds: one, the New York Office conducted no investigation in the matter involving Arrowsmith and knows nothing about the matter; secondly, based on the confidential nature of the reports of the FBI.

ACTION:

The Civil Rights Division has been kept currently informed of developments in this matter and this information is being brought to its attention. The New York Office will advise of the action taken in U. S. District Court this afternoon.

Reference is made to my memorandum of 2/27/63 wherein it was set forth that subject had telephonically contacted the New York Office concerning his suit against Hearst publications involving a libel action.

The New York Office advised by teletype 2/27/63 that Arrowsmith desired to subpoena Assistant Director John Malone to testify in U. S. District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 4, 1963, when the libel action against Hearst newspapers is scheduled.

Mr. St. John Barrett of the Civil Rights Division was advised of the contemplated action on the part of Arrowsmith in subpoenaing Mr. Malone, and he desired that copies of the pleadings in the libel suit be obtained so the Department would be in a better position to take action in the event Mr. Malone receives a subpoena.

ASAC Alton Bryant of the New York Office advised that he appeared in District Court this afternoon in response to the subpoena and was accompanied by Assistant U. S. Attorney (AUSA) Steve Kauffman. AUSA Kauffman moved to quash the subpoena on the grounds of immateriality and Executive Order (EO) 260-62 which pertains to the confidential nature of FBI files and records. SUBJECT: HAROLD NOEL ARROWSMITH
RACIAL MATTERSPURPOSE OF MEMORANDUM:

To request a correlation summary memorandum on Arrowsmith.

BACKGROUND:

Harold Noel Arrowsmith has long been active in matters pertaining to segregation and anti-Semitism. Recently he sued various newspapers in Atlanta, Georgia, for remarks which appeared concerning him in those newspapers in connection with the bombing of the Atlanta Temple in 1958. He attempted to subpoena a former SAC and the present SAC of the Atlanta Office.

In addition, he recently attempted to subpoena Assistant Director in Charge John F. Malone of the New York Office in a similar suit in New York City against the Hearst Newspaper Corporation.

In all probability, Arrowsmith will come to the Bureau's attention from time to time, and it is believed that a correlation summary memorandum concerning him would be beneficial.

ACTION:

It is recommended this memorandum be furnished to the Files and Communications Division for the preparation of a memorandum.

Attached are appropriate search slips on Arrowsmith dated 3/4/63.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE NAACP, FOR MORE THAN 53 YEARS, HAS NEVER BEEN A NEGRO, BUT ALWAYS A JEW! The current president of the NAACP is the Jew Arthur Spingarn, and before him, his brother.

The head of CORE is, again, not a negro, but the New York pinko Jew Marvin Rich! It was the American JEWISH Committee which wrote the Amicus Brief in the Supreme Court for the school integration decision of May 17, 1954, and the Jews are forever BOASTING about their role in pushing negroes into every part of White Society.

If the White People do nothing, the aggressive race-mixing Jews and their black fronts like the NAACP and CORE will ruin our peaceful, decent community, just as they have in Washington, D. C., where citizens have been forced to consider requesting that the streets be patrolled by U. S. Marines to protect them from their black "brothers" who are raping, robbing, mugging and murdering.

The little girls in Woodburne Junior High School are ALREADY victims of the ape-like black molesters who leer at them, use filthy language toward them, and even seize them indecently. The Principal and teachers dare not protest at these outrages for fear of bringing down the wrath of organized Jewry, the NAACP, CORE and the CIO upon them.

ruin your real estate, your community and your CHILDREN!

The Northwood community was once considered one of the better middle-class neighborhoods in Baltimore. There were fine schools, churches of every description and recreational facilities which encouraged the healthy development of the neighborhood youth.

Then, a few weeks ago, venal, hypocritical politicians willing to sell out our people for a swarming black vote, utterly smashed the racial self-respect and decent social patterns of our quiet community.

Already, Baltimore is suffering from a deadly social disease called "CREEPING JUNGALISM." The effects of selling out more and more White rights for black votes are evident everywhere.

Every new advance by the black blight means more danger to our womenfolk who dare not appear in the streets of our own city in many places today. Pocketbooks are snatched, women are raped, children are beaten and threatened for nickels, filth and rottenness begin to spread, neighborhood by neighborhood, until the very streets smell of negro urine, as they do where this "Creeping Jungalism" has reached the final stages. The Northwood Theater sell-out is a big step toward that fearful fate for our fine community.

WHY?

What is all this about? Is it to "help" the negro? Should decent people be FOR this social blight? Is it "hate" to defend our community and people from the fate of Washington, D. C., for instance, where they are talking about calling out the Marines to guard the people from the rampaging negro criminals?

Since when is it "hate" to want to preserve the fine community WE built and to protect our women and children from swarming black criminals such as infest other integrated communities?

WHO WANTS US TO "INTEGRATE" SO BADLY?

What most White people do not know is that it is NOT the negro himself who is doing all these things to America and the White Race. There is only ONE negro organization in America led by genuine negroes -- the Black Muslims, and that organization is just as opposed to integration as we are. The Black Muslims want to SEPARATE from the White People, and because of this they are smeared as a "hate" group. The other so-called "negro" organizations, the NAACP, CORE and the Civic Interest Group (CIG) are NOT led by negroes, but by COMMUNISTIC JEWS!

Edward Tkach, Minneapolis, Minnesota, reliability not given, in an interview on 2/14/41, advised that he went to NY in December, 1940, at which time he stopped off in Chicago and saw Helmuth Heerling at his office. While in the office he saw a letter from Captain Slagle of the German ship "Arauca" which was tied up in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Tkach advised that this letter indicated that Harold Arrowsmith of Fort Lauderdale appeared to be very close to this Captain and Tkach believed that they both were spreading German propaganda.

The following references on Harold Noel Arrowsmith appear in the file captioned "B. Westermann Co., Inc." The files of this company which were in possession of Foreign Funds Control, Treasury Dept., revealed that B. Westerman Co., Inc. addressed a letter to Harold Arrowsmith, 832 Massachusetts Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., on 9/20/39. This letter stated that the company enclosed an invoice to cover a year's subscription to "Geist d. Zeit," and that Arrowsmith had a credit of 75 cents with the company due to his having sent $5 to the Library of Information of the German Consulate. He was to be charged later for a subscription to "Kurzbericht." Letter was set out.

A lead was set out to interview Arrowsmith in reference to the above letter and it was requested that his availability as a witness should be ascertained.

It was noted that Arrowsmith's instructors at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and Harvard University considered him a psychopathic case and it was doubted that he would be a good witness.

Cincinnati report, dated 9/13/43, revealed that Harold Noel Arrowsmith was interviewed. He stated that while at Harvard he received various kinds of literature from the German Library of Information but he had never subscribed to it. The literature was in the nature of German propaganda and he believed it was sent to numerous students at Harvard. Arrowsmith advised, however, that he had ordered technical books from B. Westerman and Co., and had never received literature or books from this company with the exception of those he'd ordered. Arrowsmith intended to return to Cornell University in September, 1943, and would be available as a witness if he was needed.

Donald Arthur Swan, reliability not given, was interviewed on 1/13/59, at 201 East 69th St., NYC. He advised that during the summer of 1958, arrangements were made for him to meet with Dr. Arrowsmith in Washington, D.C. This meeting was also attended by G. Lincoln Rockwell. Arrowsmith displayed some documents concerning racial origins and spoke of "some experiments" he was conducting in racial origins. After this meeting, Swan advised, he had been contacted by Arrowsmith telephonically several times. He did not expect him to be in contact with him in the future. Interview set out.

The 10/23/58, issue of the "NY World Telegram and Sun" described Harold N. Arrowsmith of Baltimore as a self-appointed defender against a "world-wide communist conspiracy" which he blamed on the Jews.

[redacted] who had furnished reliable information in the past, advised on 7/21/58, that G. Lincoln Rockwell, 6512 Williamsburg Boulevard, Arlington, Va., planned to hold anti-Jewish demonstrations in the D.C. area during the weekend of July 25-27, 1958. The informant advised on 7/26/58, that Rockwell stated on that date, that some of the money for the demonstration was put up by a man named Arrowsmith in Baltimore.

A penciled notation stated "Probably Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr., residence - Baltimore and also in Germany."

[redacted] who had furnished reliable information in the past, advised on 5/12/58, that Rockwell was an acquaintance of Harold N. Arrowsmith, Jr., of Baltimore, a multi-millionaire who resided quite a bit in Germany.

[redacted] who had furnished reliable information in the past, advised on 7/28/58, that during the morning of 7/28/58, Wallace Allen, member of the National States Rights Party, Atlanta, Ga., telephoned Washington, D.C., stating that he was calling the man with the money. He identified this man as H. N. Arrowsmith, Jr., of the Congressional Hotel, D.C. Allen said that Arrowsmith instructed him to obtain the release of the men who were arrested on 7/28/58, for picketing, by a writ of habeas corpus and to spare no expense. Arrowsmith referred Allen to Attorney Willis Everette of Atlanta, whom he described as the Nuremburg Defense Lawyer.

The "Atlanta Constitution" for 7/28/58 stated that five men were arrested on 7/28/58 for carrying anti-Jewish signs in front of the "Atlanta Journal-Constitution" Building.

The following references on Harold Noel Arrowsmith appear in the file captioned "Wallace Allen, etal, Bombing of Temple, 1589 Peachtree St., N.W., Atlanta, Ga., 10/12/58." Arrowsmith was at one time closely associated with George Lincoln Rockwell, Arlington, Va., an anti-Semitic. Rockwell advised that Arrowsmith financed anti-Jewish activities on the part of Rockwell and Wallace Allen, and he denied that Arrowsmith financed the bombing of the temple. Arrowsmith advised that he had financed anti-Jewish demonstrations in Washington, D.C. and Atlanta, Ga., in July, 1958, and Allen was arrested in Atlanta during these demonstrations. Arrowsmith furnished $500 toward the defense of Allen and others. He denied any knowledge or participation in the bombing. Rockwell and Arrowsmith eventually had a falling out and Arrowsmith brought suit against Rockwell to recover a house and printing press he had bought for Rockwell's use. Arrowsmith advised that he supplied information to the "American Mercury" magazine, whose publisher, Russell McGuire, was anti-Jewish. He did not identify the material furnished. He advised also that he was interested in "The Virginian," a pro-Segregationist paper. Threatening phone calls and postcards were received by Arrowsmith as a result of his name appearing in articles on the bombing. He informed a reporter of the "Northern Virginia Sun" of his anti-Jewish activities and stated that he was opposed to violence. Arrowsmith filed suit against Atlanta Newspapers, Inc. for $1,250,000 charging that articles on the bombing which mentioned him caused him to be submitted to "public hate, contempt and ridicule." The investigation on Arrowsmith's connection with the bombing was negative.

Nicholas Colovos, reliability not given, in an interview, advised on 12/4/58, that in July, 1958, he and a group from NYC, traveled to Washington, D.C., at the instigation of G. Lincoln Rockwell. Rockwell furnished him with $500 to cover expenses for the group and Colovos believed this money came from Noel Arrowsmith of Baltimore, Md. This trip to D.C. was for the purpose of picketing the White House.

Colovos advised that following the demonstration in D.C., Noel Arrowsmith, in August or September, 1958, contacted him at Colovos' father's candy store at 1311 Third Ave., NYC, and spent 9 hours telling Colovos that the Jews were to blame for World Wars I and II and every other trouble that existed in the world. Arrowsmith made several other attempts to contact him in NYC, but he'd left instructions with his parents that he didn't want to see Arrowsmith. Colovos stated that he considered Arrowsmith a "nut," and he had divorced himself from individuals like Rockwell and Arrowsmith.

According to the 10/23/58 issue of the "NY World Telegram and Sun," Harold Noel Arrowsmith was described as a self-appointed defender against a world wide communist conspiracy, which conspiracy he blamed on the Jews.

On 3/19/59, James H. Madole voluntarily appeared at the NY Office and was interviewed. His reliability was not given. Madole stated that he believed the articles concerning him that were written in the "NY Daily News" by David Burk were instigated and probably written by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in NYC. An example on which he based this observation was that information contained in the November, 1958, "Anti-Defamation League Bulletin" concerning Harold Arrowsmith appeared in the 1/20/59 "Daily News" article by Burk.

The "NY Daily News," dated 1/24/59, in an article by David Burk, entitled "An Anti-Red Mask Covers True Face of Fascism In U.S.," described Harold N. Arrowsmith's connection with George Lincoln Rockwell. Arrowsmith, who had admitted financing Rockwell's demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and Atlanta, Ga., was interviewed by Burk, and when asked about Rockwell's statement that Arrowsmith had taken the head of Nasser's secret service to visit him, Arrowsmith said it was a lie. He stated that he knew those people, but he wouldn't take anyone like that to see a scoundrel like Rockwell. Rockwell, on being interviewed by Burk, gave his account of his connection with Arrowsmith. Rockwell stated "he picked me because he wanted a tough anti-Jew fighter. He wanted them tougher and tougher." "He" referred to Arrowsmith.

On 10/16/58, Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr., voluntarily appeared at the Alexandria, Va., Resident Agency. He desired to talk to the FBI because of an article in the "Northern Virginia Sun" of 10/16/58, which reported on an interview with Rockwell in which he identified Arrowsmith as the "fat cat" in a letter Rockwell had written to Wallace Allen, Atlanta, Ga.

Arrowsmith, after giving biographical data concerning himself, stated that he met Rockwell in 1958, and arranged with him for Rockwell to do some private printing for Arrowsmith. Arrowsmith bought $6000 worth of printing equipment and also purchased a home for Rockwell in Arlington, Va. He subsequently broke relations with Rockwell because of differences of opinion.

Arrowsmith advised that he financed some of Rockwell's anti-Jewish demonstrations in Washington, D.C., Atlanta, Ga., and Louisville, Ky., on 7/26-27/58. He paid Rockwell $150 per week and gave him $1000 to pay for arrangements for these demonstrations. Arrowsmith stated that he, Arrowsmith, was very "anti-Jewish" and his major interest was to reveal to the world his belief that World War I was the result of an "international Jewish conspiracy."

The article stated that George Lincoln Rockwell, the Arlington hate-monger, had written a letter to Wallace Allen, a crippled printing salesman in Atlanta, and referred to a "fat-cat financier" who turned out to be Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr. Arrowsmith, apparently thinking Rockwell ridiculed his physical plumpness, took offense. The article continued that Arrowsmith had been in touch with Salem Bader, who ran what he called the Arab-Asian Institute. Arrowsmith was alleged to have financed much of the hate-nest across the Potomac, until he broke with Rockwell, to the amount of about $20,000 plus $6000 for a printing press. Arrowsmith described himself as an anthropologist, biologist, and zoologist.

Bureau memo, dated 6/17/59, revealed that the files of the Bureau were checked in reference to Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr., pursuant to a request by Admiral Lewis Strauss, (77-47503). This review, limited to two main files on Arrowsmith, revealed the following:

In 1941 and 1942, Arrowsmith was the subject of a "Selective Service - Conscientious Objector" investigation which indicated that his objection was based on the Commandment "Thou shalt not kill" and not on any religious grounds. Arrowsmith was considered a psychopathic case by the professors and doctors at Phillips Academy, which Arrowsmith had attended. Dr. Lauren A. Smith, Director, the Institute of Penna. Hospital, Philadelphia, stated that Arrowsmith was definitely a psychiatric problem and Smith expressed the opinion that the Government should be thankful Arrowsmith was not in the armed services. Smith stated that every precaution should be made to preclude his entering Government service.

Arrowsmith was also the subject of an "Espionage-G" investigation which was closed in 1945. He had been in contact with Carl Yngve Grundell who was reportedly working for the Germans. The investigation disclosed Arrowsmith's mental condition and he was not interviewed in view of this condition. No information was disclosed which directly implicated Arrowsmith as an agent or collaborator of the German Intelligence Service.

In 1951 the Bureau conducted a "Security Matter-C" investigation of Arrowsmith's father, Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Sr., of Baltimore, Md. No information was developed showing communist activities on the part of his father; however, he was a sponsor of the Baltimore Chapter of the American -Soviet Friendship, which was cited by the AG, and he was on the Advisory Board of the Baltimore Committee for Russian War Relief, Inc.

It was recommended that Liaison Section orally brief Admiral Strauss concerning the background of Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr.

The informant pointed out that on 9/1/60, Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Congressional Hotel, Washington, D.C., made the statement that if Rockwell accepted his, Arrowsmith's, terms for the formation of the "new" organization, FAN, he, Arrowsmith, would furnish financial aid to Rockwell. The following references on Harold Noel Arrowsmith, Jr., appear in the file captioned "World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists, aka. American Nazi Party; George Lincoln Rockwell, aka." In February, 1958, Rockwell showed up in Newport News, Va., and while there met Arrowsmith. Arrowsmith was impressed with Rockwell and he left Newport News with Rockwell on 5/10/58. Arrowsmith, who had bought a house and printing equipment for Rockwell's use in printing anti-Semitic literature, became disillusioned with Rockwell and sued Rockwell for the return of the house and printing equipment. Rockwell, while associated with Arrowsmith had set up an organization at Arrowsmith's suggestion, called the National Committee to Free America from Jewish Domination. The above mentioned suit of Arrowsmith vs Rockwell was scheduled for jury trial on 2/10/59, Arlington, Va., and was settled out of court on 2/11/59.

On 6/20/60, Arrowsmith contacted the Bureau and advised that he wanted to talk about Rockwell. It was ascertained that he wanted to correct the record as regards his affiliation with the Rockwell organization and also to see if he could obtain a copy of tape recordings which may have been made of Rockwell's speeches. He also denied that he financed Rockwell's organization. Arrowsmith was advised that the Bureau had no knowledge of any tape recordings and if they had, they would be for official government use only. Arrowsmith also advised that he had various documents that were published by Rockwell, that he would give to the Bureau.

Rockwell published an open letter to Arrowsmith and others in the anti-communist, anti-Zionist and anti-Jewish movement, which reviewed their differences and called on Arrowsmith to come to his senses and join Rockwell in continuing the fight against Jews.

On 7/20/60, Arrowsmith was contacted at which time he showed copies of leaflets which he said were prepared by Rockwell. All these leaflets had previously come to the attention of the Bureau.

In May, 1960, Rockwell stated that Arrowsmith would become the "fat cat" the following week. He stated that Arrowsmith hated him but this was not deterring him in making a contribution. In October, 1960, a check was maintained on Arrowsmith's checking account but the investigation did not reveal any contributions to Rockwell. Rockwell had published an autobiography entitled "My Struggle," in which he described his "sordid experiences with 'fat cat' millionaires such as Arrowsmith." On 5/4/61, Rockwell flew to Atlanta to testify in a court case concerning Arrowsmith in which Arrowsmith was suing the Associated Press. There was no further information concerning this matter.

On 1/18/63, information was recieved to the effect that Rockwell had stated that Arrowsmith was the one who originally financed the American Nazi Party.

Bureau memo, dated 7/3/61, revealed that the office of Congressman John F. Shelley of Calif. contacted the Bureau in an effort to obtain a Photostat of the Director's letter, dated 2/23/21, to J. E. Hurley, Office of Undersecretary of State. This letter concerned a list of persons in America who received Bolshevik propaganda and Felix Frankfurter's name appeared on this list. Arrowsmith, while reviewing State Department records at Archives, through an error of an Archives employee, ran across this letter and he subsequently had copies of it sent to various Congressional Committees and members of Congress.

Background information on Herbert N. Arrowsmith is set out which appears elsewhere in this summary.

A recommendation was made that Shelley be briefed on the background of Arrowsmith and the matter of the letter mentioned above.

A notation indicated that the above recommendation was handled on 7/5/61.

A State Department Memorandum of Conversation, dated 9/27/62, concerned a conversation between Harold W. Arrowsmith, Jr., and William H. Crawford, Jr., Officer in Charge, Lebanon-Israel Affairs. Arrowsmith, in his customary vehement and argumentative manner, excoriated the U.S. Government for "crawling to Zionist pressure" in agreeing to sell the Hawk missile to Israel. Arrowsmith hoped that this would not be followed by a decision to send U.S. troops to protect Israel, since the U.S. had no responsibility whatsoever toward Israel. (no evaluation given)
